Letter to Laura Chase

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

MS 3 Sunday night 5:12 Nov
Dear Laura;

K. Ch. 43112

The Rev. Mr. Kosterick a (Clergyman who officiates at Jublet Hill) was on a visit at Jubilee preached for us today in the Chapel. Miss Clark who resides at Mr.
Bradley's played on the organ. - The Rev. Saml Chase preached this afternoon. The cold was then makes the congregation small: those 20. 15. 10. & even 4. miles are not ^{able} to attend. - Our own family those of Mr Bradley & Henry and Philander who was in home keeping - Mrs Chase's family & Dr. Cattle and the Students both male and the Chamberlains were all our congregation.

Dear Agnis Ingraham who for several weeks past has been very sick is now so well again as to leave her room: Poor thing! - never any one suffered more & live. of Typhus fever
- I hear that the daughter of Rev. Mr.
Gully Milwaukee Wisconsin, Tex.
this daughter died very suddenly of this disease. - We have lost but few in this neighborhood not one of the scholars has been sick seriously the last year except Agnis who is now getting well as I told you above.

Many's school increases this slowly - All who attend are much pleased & evidently improve fast.

Dudley your good uncle is still on way from us: but we hope to see him in a few days with his wife and dear young baby - a fine boy What they will call him I know not. The Rev. Mr. Moore I hear is getting better.

As to my own health, I have not much to say of an encouraging character. As the cold weather comes on my eccorched complaint returns and my cough increases. These circumstances remind me of my declining years and approaching end. May God give me grace to look to Him who hath overcome death and deprived the grave of his dominion!

Monday Morning.

I arose this morning at 5. -

To arouse our family & put all in motion is no small task. We have about ~~20~~ ^{at the College} 30 in November. about 30 in the family at Jubilee Chapel. Considering with What fragments this Institution was built with, few enterprises ever succeeded so well. — My dear wife as usual is the life of the whole concern; were it not for her the whole would fall to pieces.

What had been the reason of the failures of the following attempts to found and erect Institutions for the benefit of the Church? — viz

Bristol College & Seminary

Wilmington N.C. — do do.

Lexington Ky — do do

Burlington Vermont do do.

Flushing Long Island do do.

Waukegan Wis. do do. — The causemen if it could be expressed in there was bad management & if a wise female might have found by her warning counsel — her well considered plan — and prudent executory arrangements.

Poor Kenyon, has well nigh gone down by reason of the same cause. Have you seen Charles's letters to me touching Bp: Mac Swaine's misrepresentations? If he fail in getting what he wants it will be from the indignation which honest men entertain against so flagrant a misrepresentation of facts.

Since I came from Ohio the following sums have been paid into the treasury of Ken Coll for the North Section $22,500 an excess money of the students 3,000 Mrs Hannah Moore Legacy 1 to me _____ 1
Mrs Clarky Phil^{ca} - 1 $27,000

How then can it be said that I left the college so in debt as to be the cause of its present embarrassments?

There was no mortgage on the land no notes of hand or obligation given to pay and no lien on the building. If there were any debts they were current expenses. which there were always assets to pay off. - Bp. McHain is mistaken.
