Dear Samuel.

I hope to hear you are better
: may take care of yourself this foggy day - Mr. Davis has sent me nothing to day.

I regret we did not take a copy of what was in the N.O. Paper and its amendment : for I can remember nothing distinctly of what I added.

I return you what you have prepared for the advertisement: a little amended.

I see not why it will not when in its present except the sentiment expressed in a good way to give the public to understand we do not mean to suffer the questions of Abolition to be agitated by the Teachers and scholars -

The Rev. Mr. Kestwick has written some lines for the Gospel Messenger about Jubilee which I think will please you as it does Your affectionate Son

Wm. Davis 1844
I send you a Certificate of payment of Taxes on Mrs. Pruppell's land
