

Philander Chase Letters

1-22-1844

Letter to Samuel Chase

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Chase, Philander, "Letter to Samuel Chase" (1844). Philander Chase Letters. 1220.
https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/1220

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

Dear Samuel.

I hope to hear you are better
: may take care of yourself this foggy day - Mr. Davis has sent me nothing to day.

I regret we did not take a copy of what was in the N.O. Paper and its amendment : for I can remember nothing distinctly of what I added.

I return you what you have prepared for the advertisement: a little amended.

I see not why it will not when in its present except the sentiment expressed in a good way to give the public to understand we do not mean to suffer the questions of Abolition to be agitated by the Teachers and scholars -

The Rev. Mr. Kestwick has written some lines for the Gospel Messenger about Jubilee which I think will please you as it does Your affectionate Son

Wm. Davis 10/24/44
I send you a Certificate of payment of Taxes on Mrs. Pruppell's land in this town