Letter to Samuel Chase

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Boston Monday, 2<sup>d</sup> Sept<sup>r</sup> / 44

To the Rev Saml. Chase

My dear Saml<sup>y</sup>:

That you may know in short hand the events of my journey since I let you take the following—

I preached & read pr <sup>o</sup> in Hopkinton	Monday	night
" " Rev Tentbrook. Concord	Tuesday	"
" " Rev. Mr. Edm <sup>s</sup> Lowell	Wednesday	"
" " " " " "	Thursday	"
I arrived in Boston on	Friday
Went to Bp. Eastburn	Saturday
Preached in Cambridge	Sunday	morning
St. Pauls —	"	afternoon
Grace Church	"	night

In Lowell they gave me a scholarship

In Grace Chh Boston do

St. Pauls not heard from

The Mr: is very kind to me and I am to preach for him next Sunday in Trinity Chh: & for the Rev. Mr. Wart in Christ Chh in the afternoon On Tuesday I am to preach in Newton and the other vacant days of this week I hope to preach in Bedford & Taunton. — In all this duty
I am sustained evidently by an extraordinary degree of divine goodness & mercy. My health is good & my spir-its but seldom flag. — Yours truly, P. Chase

Pray prep the business of the printing - especially of the Reminiscences. I have heard from the mouth of one of the students <sup>of the Alex. Seminary</sup> the following words.
"They are trying at Gambier to get our Mr. Shave now, the President of Kenyon College"

Poor Mr. Shave! - What will become of him if this viper once more nestles by his side! -

If this be not a contrivance in spreading this report in Alexandria to raise his name there (which I strongly suspect) surely there is another plot to get rid of the Kishoh now only a tool of the designing men in that unhappy place - Douglass has been turned away from his bed of wild thornes, by <sup>an</sup> unseen hand & this he told me himself when I saw him in Brooklyn. - And now the plot begins to thicken & the hand is still concealed!! - When will the world cease to be duped by this arch ingrate!!

Now I say let the 7th Number come forth - for it is that alone which tear the veil from our blinded Ohh: -

Hasten the Pictures of Jubilee Give my best respects to Mr. Blake. Playlock into my care with him - See I know where the former Numbers have gone. Do this kindly but with firmness. Ever faithfully P. Chase
