Letter to Olivea Chase

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Dear Sister Olivea

I am still detained in N York. on business of great importance;—and when I shall be able to go westward I know not.— Mary my dear daughter remains with me to take care of me: but I see she is very anxious to return to her Mother. I have heard that the company in which Miss Lucia Plinn went Propaganda =ti on the 25th of last month. They must be near =ly at home by this time:—yea if they met with no accident they are doubtless well settled in Lubster and doing their duty.— The school will be prosperous and all blessed with good health

I hope you all liked the "Pastoral Letter"
 May a blessing attend it.—

I write this more to assure you of my unabated affection than to
