Letter to Philander Chase

Josiah Allport

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Right Rev<sup>d</sup>. Dear Sir, Having occasion to send some Copies of a Translation of a work of B<sup>d</sup> Davenant on Justification to your side of the Atlantic - as you had a Copy of my Translation of the same author's Exposition ad C<sup>o</sup> sensus, I have thought you might like the present work. I beg your acceptance of it. A Copy of the second Vol<sup>e</sup> shall follow.

By a letter from Bishop d<sup>e</sup> Lorraine, I infer that the Copy of the Exposition which I sent you when Bishop of this was left in Henry on (dego) - If so, you have not obtained another copy of that work, but would like one I will try to procure a copy (not having any myself) I send you with Vol II, of the present work if you will let me know -

Your old friend, & my best friend Dear Lady Ross, as you are doubtless aware has been taken to her rest their reward now some years since - I hope you, my Dear Sir, are enjoying health & strength & seeing the blessing of God rest on your labours. We are struggling here in troublous times & under gloomy prospects but the Lord reigneth, & will order all for the good of his Church & people. I keep the feet of his saints Praying for every blessing to at-

Read you personally & minister. ally, I am Dear Mr Reed Sir

Yours very faithfully
Josiah Oldport

P.S. If you can render me any service in commending the work in any other quarter I shall be greatly obliged.
The Bth of Cashel, who set me upon it, has made it one of his examining Books with Candidates for holy orders
