Dear Mary O.

K. Ch. 470624

I was delighted to read, as I came home from the Conⁿ your good letter of June the 8th - Mine to you having crossed on the way gave you to understand I reciprocate your tender ness of mutual regards.

I thank the Divine goodness for preserving you from the dangers of the Rivers and bringing ^{you} home more to see your loved parents. Pray give my love to them both. It is to their prayers their faith in the Lord Jesus that so many blessings have come on me and Fribilee College of late; especially that we have now an apostolic Bishop in the Rev. J. B. Britton of Chillicothe. Some holy persons must have ^{been} offering up holy prayers their faith in Jesus Christ - while our Convention was sitting in Alton, or so great harmony would not have prevailed. - All other things also went on well, as you'll see by the Journal which will be soon printed at our Fribilee College Press, & sent you.

I can write no more now except to give you the blessings of your loving Gr. Father J. Chase
