Letter to Rachel Denison

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

My Dear, Dear, Sister:

We have or can have an opportunity of once more seeing each other before we die.

The Commemoration of Dr. Burges Mr. Ellet of Maine will take place in Hartford Conn. immediately after the rising of the Genl. Convention now sitting in N. York.

If you can set off very soon from Proyaltan and come down to see yr. Daughter you may be in readiness to witness the Commemoration of Dr. Burges.

May do so — — and thus greatly oblige your affectionate Brother

Philander

Received upon in the House of Reps. New York
Oct. 21 - 1847 -

P. S. I think the Convention will rise at the end of next week. and the Commemoration will take place within one or two days after.
