Letter to Frederick Stahl

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Respected & Dear Sir.

Your favor of May 21. with many others from numerous correspondents is before me now upon my return from Convention

You inclose three Dollars for the "Motto;" two from yourself, & one from Miss Lucretia M. Swan

I am pleased to hear of your exertions in building a Church edifice and hope that they may be crowned with a blessing. Should I be spared I hope to be able to fulfil your wishes to make you a visit in the fall when your Church will be ready for consecration.

I remember with great pleasure former visits in your family & hope again to share your hospitalities.

I need your prayers and those of all the true servants of Christ who wish to uphold the hands of this Bishop in planting & extending his Kingdom of "righteousness & peace" in this Wiccec.

I must heartily return the kind wishes of members of your family & pray for blessings on you all.

Yours truly,
Phillips Chase

(Another n. of the Motto is in preparation)
