Letter to Laura Chase

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

My dear Laura.

I have great satisfaction in reading your good letters but have little time to answer them as they deserve and as my tender regard to you dictates

I think much of your approbation of my decision in case of calling the bishops together. If it be considered as a Rebuke for so ill judged a requisition. I am willing it should so pass though my mind felt humbled that I was called on to differ from my brethren.

We are all well! - having every moment to work for our living and to keep the College Institution from sinking under the load of difficulties occasioned by our losses by fire.

It is Fasten week and soon I am called on for divine service in the Chapel.

I send you with this our 11th no of the "Astro". I hope its contents will please you, your Mother and Sister.

Of your husband I hear nothing but that he is a Member of the Wisconsin Legislature; in which station wish him to remember whose servant he is, that of his dear Country, of the Lord God who governs us all & will call us all to give an ac<sup>t</sup> to Him at the last. That you & your little ones - may be blessed is the prayer of your loving & ever dear Father.

Thine Chas
