Letter to Thomas Brownell

Phildander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Dear Mother,
 I have just written, a letter which I thought very likely to reach the Editor of the Unitarian and which I have thought an apology for the remarks in the statement which appeared in your issue in the number for November of the year. The object of my writing you with this letter is to enquire whether my apology be the true, or only a partial one. In other words are you satisfied with what appears over your signature in the Unitarian? I have written in the paper of the 22nd Dec. 1857.

Yours affectionate friend and loving brother in Christ Wm. Lloyd Garrison
