Letter to Mary Olivia Chase

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

My dear Grand Daughter Mary - L. - Chase!

I write these lines in your presence though you are unaware of my addressing you

When you leave me - today - or tomorrow or on Monday next, it will be I fear for the last time that we bid each other Adieu -

Enclosed the inclosed a very small token of my love for you, ($38)
 would it were ten times as great a sum It may serve to bear your expenses (in part) when returning to Steubenville to see the best of parents.

If the blessing of your aged Grand Father mean the prayer of faith in Jesus Christ offered in sincerity for your temporal & eternal happiness you may be assured of it when you read your Father's and Grand Father's name

Faint, illegible handwriting, possibly a name or address, written in the top left section of the paper.

To Miss Mary Anne Chase

To be inserted in the note
