Letter to Philander Chase

D Rutter

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Chicago July 15th 1837
Right Rev. A. Dear Sir,

Your letter of the 15th Inst. has been this moment received. It will afford me pleasure to comply with my engagements relative to the Special Convention, there need be no apprehensions upon the subject,

Your son the Rev. Dudley Chase left the City with his family about the 5th Inst. if I can during his absence attend to any matter here for you, you will please command me -

With sentiments of great respect
I am your humble servant
D. H. Miller
