Letter to Sophia Chase

Samuel Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

April 28 - 1863 -

To Mrs J. M. Chas.

Very Dear Madam

Just as I was leaving before Mr John Burket spoke to me about an application for aid, to enable Whitson to build his Church at Madison. He said he would be very glad to assist him but at present he had no money -

He directed me to enclose to you the accompanying letter for $100. dated Feb 6th 1860 from Mr J. S. Chombarine, and say that any avails which might come from its sale, be applied to that purpose -

He also said that he was willing to do more and that he would give Lots 2 & 3 in Block 12 to Birkets addition to Mevies provided, the Church was completed in two years -

He said, he wished to give these Lots for the use of the Church; and in the event of the Church at Annapolis, being completed, within the specified time, viz, two years he desired to give the Lots for that purpose but failing that he wished them to go to the benefit of Julius Jones -

He desired me to write as above to you and I immune the first opportunity to do so -

I have been since I

Left home very busy engaged, for the most part in visiting the sick in the hospital.

With kind regards I am most affectionately
Yours
Samuel Chace
