FRESHMEN

*Win Historic Rush—Clever
Ruse is Successful—Rules Changed.*

The annual cane rush took place this year on September 24. The Freshmen won in less than a minute by cleverly throwing the cane across the second year men's goal. This is the first time for many years that a rush has been won in such a short time and in such a manner.

The rules committee changed the rules from last year by giving the Freshmen possession of the cane upon their goal, which was fifty feet from where the Sophomores were lined. The rush began when the whistle was blown by Referee "Bub" Lee of class of '06. The Freshmen, in a wedge formation enclosing the man with the cane, started at the same time that the Sophomores left their line, the two sides coming together nearly in the middle of the field. At this point the man with the cane gave it a hurl which sent the historic piece of wood flying over the heads of all, the cane landing barely five feet from the Sophomore's own goal. A general rush for the cane was made and in an instant the referee's whistle was blown and the Freshmen had won. In the scramble for the stick it had been shoved over the goal line of Captain Marty's men and they had met defeat in less time than it takes to tell of it.

The night before the rush the Sophomores had captured twelve of the Freshmen and tied them so that when the time of the rush came the second year men outnumbered the new men by at least ten. This gave the Sophomores hope of winning the rush and no doubt it was their over-confidence that led to their downfall.

The rush of 1910 is a thing of history and it only remains to see whether this year's Freshmen class can show the strategy next year in the annual fight that they did in this rush.

All Greek letter societies have been abolished from the University of Mississippi. Eight fraternities and two sororities are affected by the rule.

OTTERBEIN AND KEYNON

Play 0-0 Game---Kenyon Not Yet in True Form---The Score Was a Surprise to Kenyon Men, as All Expected the Mauve Color to Win.

The opening game of Kenyon's football season resulted in a 0-0 score on Benson Field, Gambier, Saturday, October 1.

The score was a surprise but by no means a disappointment to Kenyon men. All had fully expected that the mauve would win, only after a hard game, however, and by a small margin. The superior advantage which Otterbein had of playing against O. S. U. the preceding Saturday and holding them to a score of 14-5, gave them a trying out and valuable experience which the Kenyon team did not have. The low score to which Otterbein held State made the Westerville eleven to be feared, but confidence was placed in Bemis Pierce's men to such a degree that Kenyon followers fully expected victory. Had the Kenyon team played its usual practice game with one of the High School teams there is no doubt Otterbein would have been taken into camp by the Kenyon warriors. As it is, the Coach, the team and the followers of Kenyon are rejoicing that the result was a 0-0 tie rather than an easy victory, for weaknesses have been discovered in the line-up and playing, and the possibility of over confidence which victory might have brought is entirely absent in the Kenyon squad. Nothing was lost by this no-score tie with Otterbein, and a fighting spirit, that no contest but a hard struggle develops, has been instilled into the home team, by which we expect to win the remaining games of the season.

For the Otterbein team, Coach Exendine, the former Carlisle Indian star and pupil of Bemis Pierce on the same team, has done wonderful work. The Otterbein game heretofore has been considered an early season practice game, to train up the Kenyon team for its later games with Reserve, Case and O. S. U. Now, however, Otterbein is taking its place with the better teams, as is evidenced by its showing against Ohio State and Kenyon on successive Saturdays. Otterbein had profited, true enough, by having the start on us of ten days additional practice and its game the week before, which the Otterbein team considers the greatest of its yearly schedule.

Coach Bemis Pierce, speaking for Kenyon, seems satisfied with Saturday's game. He could see the team's weaknesses and is ready to remedy the points in which the team fell down.

The line from end to end stood well. No better proof of this can be shown than when in the early part of the Second Quarter the Kenyon line braced up against the powerful tackle bucks of Johns and Mannus of Otterbein on Kenyon's 3 yard line, and took the ball from Otterbein on downs. The strong center work of Bland, the veteran, is lacking, but Snyder is taking the place well. Capt. C. Cable, Mason, J. Cable and Axtell, the old men, are doing great work, and too much praise cannot be given to Marty, the new man on the team at tackle. Skiles and Aves, who played right end, made first rate showings. Aves is probably the smallest man playing in Ohio Inter-collegiate football.

Weakness of the team lies mainly in the lightness of its backfield. Big men like Lord and Bentley of the 1909 team are missing, and Henry was kept out of the running by a twisted knee. Kreig at full, has the size and speed of a good man, and this together with his ability at punting makes him an invaluable addition to the team. Young and Wickham at halves are good men and should develop into fast players, but their work in playing together and forming good interference for the full-back was one of the weak points of the team. A little good coaching should make the available backfield men, Young, Kreig, Wickham and Downe, into players whose speed fits well into the style which the new rules suggest.

The game would have been won

EIGHTY-SECOND

*Annual Commencement
Held June 22, Was a Great Success.*

The Eighty-Second Annual Commencement Week opened on Saturday, June the twenty-second, nineteen hundred and ten with the annual base-ball game between the alumni and varsity teams. The Senior Informal was held in the evening and was well attended, considering the small number of guests that had arrived at the opening of the "week."

Sunday, June 19th

7:30 a. m. Celebration of the Holy Communion in the college chapel.

10:30 a. m. The ordination to the diaconate of seven men of the class of 1910 of Bexley Hall: Frank Albus, Reader Paul Ernest, William B. Kinkaid, B. D.; Walter Gordon Moffatt, Roy J. Riblet, B. S., B. D.; Claude Soares, Geo. J. Sturgis, A. B., B. D.

The candidates were presented by the Reverend Dr. Felix Davies, professor of dogmatic theology in Bexley Hall.

Canon Watson preached a strong and forceful sermon.

In the evening the Rt. Reverend C. D. Williams, Bishop of Detroit, delivered the Baccalaureate Sermon to the graduating class of Kenyon college. He chose as his text a passage from the gospel according to St. Luke:

"And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee."

On Monday morning the Annual Debate for the Stires prizes was held in Philo Hall. The subject was, Resolved: "That the plays of Shakespeare are true to human nature."

The affirmative was upheld by Theodore Kraft, '10, and Harry S. Lybarger, '10, against William John Bland, '10, and H. G. C. Martin, '10, who supported the negative.

The judges: Reverend William Thompson, '58, Grove Curtis, '80, and Charles R. Ganter, '99, awarded the first prize of thirty-five dollars to William J. Bland and the second of fifteen dollars to H. S. Lybarger.

On Monday evening at an early hour, the honorary society of Phi Beta Kappa held initiation for the following men: Arthur Douglas Farquhar, '10, Alva I. Hardy, '10, Harry S. Lybarger, '10, Mark H. Wiseman, '10, and Walter Fuller Tunks, '10.

In addresses which followed the newly initiated members outlined their future plans, which are significant in that they showed all to be intent on postgraduate work. One in theology, one in mathematics, two in law and one in English.

Later in the evening the Senior Play "A Pair of Spectacles," was presented with great success, especially in the interpretation of the feminine parts. The cast was as follows:

Mr. Benjamin Goldfinch..... Tunks
Uncle George (his brother)..... Hardy
Percy (his son)..... Wiseman
Dick (his nephew)..... Lord
Lorimer (his friend)..... Thurstin
Bartholomew (his shoemaker)..... Cardillo

Tuesday noon, luncheons of Philo and Nu Pi Kappa Literary societies.

On Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the long talked of and practiced Mikado was given by the Kenyon Glee Club under the direction of Walter McCowatt, '11. The opera was a remarkable success in every way and pleased everybody.

Mr. Cable's voice was well adapted to the heart warming solos of Nanki Poo and the comedy work of Mr. Tunks calls for especial praise.

After the opera Johnson's orchestra of Cleveland played on the steps of Rosse Hall while those present promenaded on Kenyon's "Middle Path."

The Commencement exercises proper were held on Wednesday morning, June the twenty-second. After prayer was said in the Church of the Holy Spirit, the Academic procession proceeded to Rosse Hall in the following order: The graduating classes of Kenyon College and Bexley Hall; representative alumni; faculties of Bexley and Kenyon; Board of Trustees; candidates for Honorary degrees. Upon arriving at Rosse Hall, the invocation was said by the Bishop of Southern Ohio and Mr. Bland proceeded with the class oration.

Dr. Cromwell was next introduced and held the interest of all present for some time, with an address of so unusual a type as to be remarkable. His delightful informality and graceful humor made a lasting impression on all who were so fortunate as to be present.

After his annual address to the members of the graduating class, Dr. Pierce, the President of Kenyon College, conferred the following degrees:

Bachelor of Arts

Lyle Fox Emerine
Alva Irwin Hardy, 2d Honor Man.

Theodore Kraft, Jr.
Harry S. Lybarger, 4th Honor Man.

After the Benediction had been pronounced by the Bishop of Ohio, the graduates and alumni present adjourned to the Alumni luncheon.

With the dying away of the last cords of "Home, Sweet Home" at sunrise on Thursday, June 23d, the memorable "week" closed. The Senior reception was probably the most beautiful dance, from the standpoint of decorative art, that was ever given on Gambier Hill, and it was thoroughly appreciated.

PROFESSOR

E. H. Downey, New Professor Comes With a Very Good Record.

The speculation as to who would succeed to the chair of Economics, made vacant by the death of Dr. Hall, has been satisfied by the introduction of Professor E. H. Downey into Kenyon college.

Prof. Downey comes to us with a splendid record and his personal popularity was established immediately. His courses are proving interesting and he brings to each class a fund of personal illustrations which can not but be beneficial.

At the Otterbein game he showed that he has already begun to assimilate Kenyon spirit for there was no more ardent "rooter" present than the latest addition to our already fine faculty.

Prof. Downey received his A. B. at U. of Iowa in 1907; was Research Assistant of the Historical Society of Iowa, 1907-8; A. M., Iowa 1908; Fellow in Political Economy, Chicago, 1908-9; Instructor in Economics, University of Missouri, 1909-10.

He has also written a number of articles which have gained him recognition in the field of Economics. Two of the best known of his articles are "A History of Iowa Labor Legislation" and "The Futility of Marginal Utility."

Harcourt

Harcourt Place School opened for the fall 1910-11 term on Wednesday afternoon, September 28. Among the thirty girls attending there are some who are preparing for Vassar, Wellesley and Wells colleges. Miss Merwin is still at the head of the institution.

Dr. Motoda of Tokio addressed the girls of Harcourt on the afternoon of October 3 upon the subject, "The Social Life of A Girl in Japan." His remarks were very interesting and throughout enjoyed, but after the girls had thought the matter over all of them decided that they would rather stay in Gambier than take a chance in Japan.

Glee Club Elects Officers for this Year

At a meeting of the Glee Club on Sept. 30, Walter McCowatt was re-elected leader of the club for the year 1910-1911. Last year Mr. McCowatt had drilled the men well and then had been disappointed because the trip had been called off.

In spite of this discouragement he went ahead and produced the "Mikado," probably the hardest and without doubt the best work ever attempted at Kenyon. As a leader Mr. McCowatt has no superiors in college and this year under his direction, Kenyon should have as good a Glee club as there is in the state.

Fred Clark, at the same meeting, was elected leader of the Mandolin club. His election was a popular one.

There were twenty-two men at the meeting and with the addition of the singers from the Freshman class the clubs will easily be recruited up to their normal strength.

Mr. H. H. Gaines is manager this year and he is now working on a trip which will start after Xmas and close a few days after school has opened in January.

Daniel Waldo Field, a millionaire shoe manufacturer, has entered Harvard at the age of 45.

Dr. Motoda

On Sunday morning, October 2, the students of Kenyon were given the pleasure of hearing Dr. Joseph M. Motoda of Tokio, Japan. Dr. Motoda is a graduate of Kenyon, having completed his course with the class of 1891 and is president of St. Paul's college in Tokio. He was sent to this country as delegate to the convention in Cincinnati and while near Gambier dropped in to visit the Hill for the first time in many years.

The remarks of Dr. Motoda were confined chiefly to the present situation of the Christian religion in Japan and some of the facts set forth by him were interesting indeed if not startling.

"Missionaries to Japan" he said "are needed just as much if not more than to other countries, because, if the Japanese are once Christianized it will be the headquarters for Chinese missionaries and that is the aim of the church, i. e., to "Christianize China." Kenyon is proud to have such a man as Dr. Motoda among her alumni.

Kenyon men are generally disappointed over the size of this year's entering class and can well ask themselves, when will there be an improvement? Kenyon must have more men and now that the enrollment has dropped below one hundred, they must begin to act. It is the duty of every alumnus to start immediately to talk Kenyon to prospectives. Our school is good, the courses are excellent, the faculty is a fine one and the life is great. What more can a man ask? And yet we have less than thirty-five men starting in the class of 1914.

This year the old men returned in greater numbers than previously and it is due to this fact that we are able to make any showing at all. Last year's Junior class returned with but a couple of absentees. The present Junior class starts the year with twenty-four members while last year's Freshman class lost twenty-four of their original members.

In the past Kenyon has had an enviable reputation in every line of work, but it cannot be expected to keep up the usual standard unless more men enter and fewer men withdraw every year. Kenyon spirit, which we hear talked about so much, should come to the rescue and should fight with every ounce of strength to keep Kenyon abreast of the times. All of the other educational institutions speak with pride of their yearly increases. Kenyon is better, Kenyon is best, let us start now for a big class for 1916.

BACK AGAIN

We are all familiar, the older men at least, with the aimless, restless spirit that pervades the dormitories the first few weeks after the vacation. It is only natural that, having returned from the pleasures of the summer season, it should take some time to get properly orientated in our work. But this ought not to occasion any great difficulty with men who have reached that stage in their development where responsibility and definite purpose have begun to acquire a meaning, such progress as we must assume in the college man. The fact that a man is registered as a student at Kenyon ought certainly to mean just one thing, that his purpose is in harmony with that of the agent he has selected to assist him in the realization of that purpose. And the college, like every individual or institution that is of any great service to the world, has its ideal purpose: to provide that general education and culture which best serve as a preparation for whatever vocation may claim its graduates in later life.

Then, surely, we should begin at once to realize more fully and completely our own aim and thereby that of the college, binding together with ligaments—the result of “free labor”—the disjointed skeleton of facts and breathing some vitality into them.

“Let every man be master of his time,” and thus alone can he attain to the breadth of culture which should be his aim, and which will aid him in distinguishing the great from the trivial.

THE NEW COLLEGIAN

The Collegian Board hopes this year to inaugurate a few improvements which should benefit the paper materially. In the first place there will be five special issues which will be illustrated with appropriate cuts. The first special issue will be the Football issue, immediately after Thanksgiving. In this number there will be pictures of the team, the coach, the graduate manager, captain, etc. Another special issue will be the Musical number. The Glee and Mandolin Clubs will then have their day. Other special issues will be announced later.

These special issues should appeal to the alumni and we expect to see a number of new subscriptions and in fact must have more alumni subscriptions in order to make these numbers pay.

The board this year will make every effort within its power to issue the paper on time and the management will see that the alumni get their papers on time.

The management has been very energetic and has secured more advertising than ever before. Now the students ought to keep their eyes on Collegian and Reveille advertisers and as far as possible patronize them in preference to non-advertisers. If they would do this, and we are sure they will, then it would be far easier to get advertising for Kenyon books. Throughout the year there will be run a list of Reveille and Collegian advertisers in the last Collegian of every month. Keep your eye on this list and patronize those who patronize us.

A word should be said in this column about the team and that word is to fight. Get mad, tear up some things and in general keep moving. The material is better than that of last year, we have a better schedule and best of all we have the same coach.

We are a trifle late in starting and for that reason the team will not show its best form until it gets up against the real teams in the race. Otterbein, for the first time in years, kept her goal line virgin from Kenyon's onslaughts, but our belief is that should this game be played over, after Kenyon has had a month's hard work, the score would be different. This game was the climax in Otterbein's schedule and Exendine had his men keyed up to mid-season form. Pierce, on the other hand, is building for late October and November. It wouldn't do for him to train his team to a fine point so early in the season and then see them go stale when the Reserve, Case and State games arrive.

Therefore, do not feel discouraged because we didn't defeat Otterbein, but feel relieved that we kept our record clean and at the same time allowed Coach Pierce to work his team into condition by easy stages. The student body can help the team by going to the field in the afternoon and thus demonstrating their interest. They can help by frowning on every slight breach of training. The Freshmen can help by turning out a good scrub team. Those Freshmen, who do not care to play, can be of material assistance in rubbing the varsity men.

At any rate we can have a good year if we all help. The team may not win every game, but if it does its best the undergraduates will be satisfied.

Puff and Powder Club

The Puff and Powder Club held its first meeting on Friday evening, September 30, at which time Dr. William P. Reeves, was elected supervisor of the club and Mr. Clements business manager. Instead of being inactive this year, the club is going to start off with a light comedy on Saturday evening, November 19. The purpose of the club was formerly of an honorary nature, but this year it intends to put on as many plays as can be satisfactorily handled. All college men are urged to be on the outlook for dramatic ability. At present the club is composed of Mr. Siddall, pres., Dr. Reeves, supervisor, Mr. Clements, business manager and Messrs. Clark, McCowatt and Wheaton.

Big Bonfire and Rally
—Many Speeches

Rallies such as the one held the Thursday evening before the Otterbein game are certainly a good thing, even though they only give Kenyon spirit a chance to show itself. But they do more, in that they gave the new men an idea of what real life is upon the Hill and shows them what is expected of them. A rally such as that one would surely not be out of place during the first week of college. It is hoped that the custom may be made an annual one.

The C., A. & C. railroad has spent no small amount this summer in making our station here at Gambier reflect the beauty of the college grounds. A cement walk has been put down, two large gas lights installed at each end of the station platform while a small park plan has been followed in arranging the paths and roadway.

The Tennis Courts

The tennis courts have been entirely made over this summer and with the two new nets just added they are in excellent condition for favorites of this popular game. As the initiation fee, as well as the dues, connected with the Tennis association have been eliminated, it is hoped that the courts will be filled every hour of the day.

Student Lecture Course Committee

The Student Lecture Course committee have already begun their plans for the winter months and a number of well known Ohio men have been engaged to deliver addresses here this fall. It is hoped that Kenyon men may enjoy, as they should, lectures of this type at least once in every two weeks throughout the winter season. Let this year's committee do something.

FRANK MARTY

Wins Ohio Tennis Championship at Cleveland, August 16, '10.

Frank Marty, '13, won the Ohio Tennis Championship at Cleveland, August 16th by defeating Charles Beard of Cleveland in three straight sets 6-1, 8-6, 6-3. This title gives Marty the Murray cup which he must defend in next year's tournament.

Marty, played under Kenyon colors and accompanied by Dr. L. B. Walton, in the latter's automobile, made a round of the tennis matches in Ohio and Indiana during the summer. Marty was entered in the Southern Ohio tournament, in the Tri-State tournament at Cincinnati, and in the Indiana State tournament.

At the Cleveland tournament Marty playing with Phil Collins of Cleveland reached the finals in doubles. The Kenyon player's work was of the most brilliant and consistently vigorous play seen on Ohio courts for some time. His forceful smashes put his opponents on the defensive at the outset of each match, and his physical endurance enabled him to batter his way up to the finals, which in singles he won with no difficulty.

The Ohio State tournament at Cleveland will be remembered as the one in which Fred Carr made so excellent a showing a year ago. Carr worked his way up to the final match, where his endurance failed him, losing out to Beard for the state title. The showing of the two Kenyon stars, Carr and Marty in successive years at the Cleveland tournament speaks remarkably well for Kenyon's position in tennis.

At the Indiana State tournament held in Indianapolis, Marty playing with Thornton, six times the champion of the state, won the Indiana title in doubles.

In the Southern Ohio tournament at Hamilton, O., Marty won the title in singles, and in the finals of the doubles Marty and Wenzel lost out to R. A. Holden and partner. Holden is captain of the Yale Tennis team and also Intercollegiate champion.

At the Tri-State tournament, which is second in importance in tennis events, only to the Newport matches, Marty went to the semi-finals in doubles. He and his partner did not lose to the winners of the tournament until five sets had been played. Marty was beaten in singles by Merrill Hall, Clay Court champion of the United States.

Death of Dwight E. Sapp

Dwight E. Sapp, one of Mt. Vernon's best-known men died at the Mt. Vernon hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis and other abdominal troubles.

The deceased, who was a native of Mt. Vernon was born in 1863. He received his common school education in Mt. Vernon and afterwards was a member of the class of 1884, Kenyon college. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1887. That same year, he was appointed to the office of county recorder and served in that capacity until 1894.

Mr. Sapp was a man of large interests in financial and industrial enterprises, being connected with various interests both in and away from Mt. Vernon.

The funeral was conducted from the family home and the interment was in the Mound View cemetery.

Dr. John W. Dashiell

Dr. John W. Dashiell, aged 93 years, one of the oldest residents of Princess Anne, Md., and well known physician, died at his residence early Sunday morning. Dr. Dashiell was a son of the late R. H. Dashiell, of Somerset county, and was born in this county.

He was graduated from Kenyon College, in Ohio, in 1839, and graduated in medicine from the Maryland University, Baltimore, in 1842, also reading in the office of the late Dr. Nathan S. Smith at the same time. Dr. Dashiell began the practice of medicine at Vienna, Md., and remained there until 1847, when he returned to Somerset county.

In 1852 he married Miss Eliza Polk, who died in 1897. He is survived by two daughters—Mrs. Francis H. Dashiell and Mrs. E. Orrick Smith, of Princess Anne.

The funeral was held from St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal church, Princess Anne, of which Mr. Dashiell had been a vestryman for more than half a century.

The Late Rev. Charles F. Walker

The death of the Rev. Charles Frederick Walker was chronicled last week. He was the son of Thomas Charles Walker and Sarah Annie Clowes, and was born in New York City, where he received his education in public and private schools and in Columbia University. He spent several years in business and then, in 1901, entered Bexley Hall, the divinity school of Kenyon College. In 1903 he was graduated with the degree of B. S. from Kenyon College, and a year later was graduated from Bexley Hall, at the same time taking the degree of M. A. from Kenyon. He was ordained to the diaconate in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Gambier, Ohio, June 19, 1904, by the Rt. Rev. William A. Leonard, D. D., Bishop of Ohio, and was advanced to the priesthood by him, December 21, 1904, in Calvary Church, Sandusky, Ohio, of which church he was rector until 1907, in which year he became curate in St. Paul's Church, Cleveland. On September 1, 1909, he took charge of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Buffalo, N. Y., of which parish he was rector at the time of his death. Mr. Walker married Jennie Van Name Dodd, daughter of the late Colonel Marvin Dodd of East Orange, N. J., October 20, 1898, who, with one daughter, survives him.

Mr. Walker died of septic poisoning on Sunday morning, August 14th, at the home of his wife mother in East Orange, where he was visiting. He had conducted service on August 7th at Holy Trinity Church, West Orange.

The funeral was held at Grace Church, Orange, on Wednesday, August 17th, at 3 o'clock, the following clergymen officiating: the Rev. Francis Mellwain, the Rev. Edward J. Owen, the Rev. Henry A. Dexter, and the Rev. Harold S. Brewster. Interment was made in Rosedale cemetery, Orange.

The Freshmen won the annual cane rush at Ohio State. Only twice in the last ten years have the Freshmen won the rush.

President Thompson of Ohio State has sounded the death knell of hazing in Columbus. He stated definitely that the Ohio law on hazing would be rigorously enforced. Special Police are employed to watch the students and put a stop to any proceedings that seem doubtful.

Dr. Reeves Becomes a Benedict

On Monday, June 27, Dr. William P. Reeves, McIlvaine Professor of English at Kenyon was married to Miss Florence M. Beckwith, at the home of the bride in Duluth, Minn. Miss Beckwith has been for the past few years instructor in the department of music at Harcourt Place School and will continue throughout the year with the same work. Dr. and Mrs. Reeves have the heartiest congratulations of the faculty and student body of Kenyon college. It is hoped that the new home life of Professor Reeves will not keep him from attending the meetings and gatherings of the students of the college with whom he has always been so popular. It's a shame that he didn't get married during the college year.

PRES. PEIRCE

Addresses First Assembly of the Year---Committees Selected.

At the first assembly of the collegiate year Dr. Peirce paid a great tribute to the past and present work of this student organization. Before the assembly existed, affairs at Kenyon were in a chaotic condition. Now, under the guidance of the new graduate managers, affairs have been placed on a business like basis.

Dr. Peirce also appealed to the men to stand for things in college which were right. Especially did he urge them to think and to think earnestly upon all the matters which came before them. He stated that nearly all of the men who had made good after leaving Kenyon, were men who had done things while in school.

After the address of Dr. Peirce, a number of committees were selected. The Lecture Course committee for this year will be composed of Reinheimer, Siddall, Leslie, Harkness and Weaver.

The Honor committee is made of the following men: Reinheimer, Marvin, Millspaugh, Dempsey, Weaver, McMaster, Palmer.

The Dormitory committee comprises the following men: Marvin, Millspaugh, C. Cable, Senft, Harter, McCafferty, Reinheimer.

The Executive committee is made up of the following men: Siddall, C. Cable, Reinheimer, Russell, Young, Hall.

OTTERBEIN-KENYON

by Kenyon had fortune but carried a little higher a place kick which Young made from Otterbein's 25 yard line in the Third Quarter. The ball struck the cross-bar of the goal post and fell to the ground. This was our nearest approach to scoring. Kreig made the longest run of the day, a gain of 30 yards. Few forward passes were attempted, but Otterbein made several nice gains in this manner.

The line-up of the teams was:

Notes of the Game

The cheer leading of "Cub" Siddall, the newly elected cheer leader was a feature. "Cub" looks to be a strong lunger, and he needs only the hearty support and voices of the college to make Kenyon's cheering a success.

The new season ticket, on which the Otterbein game was the first to be punched, seems to be a success. Buy one and see every game with every team that plays in Gambier.

Veterans and eligible men who should be playing this year and who are not are Pontius, Henry, Crippen and Williams, but various reasons have taken them to other colleges. Pontius is in the law school at Michigan, Crippen is in business, and Williams is at Cornell in the Engineering department. Henry is kept out because of injuries.

The subdivision of the game into quarters by the new rules, is a noticeable improvement in football. It makes the game easier to follow by the spectators, gives the players a needed interval of rest between first and second and third and fourth quarters, and gives the cheer-leaders time to hit up some live songs.

Kreig did some fine punting as most of his attempts went over forty yards.

One of the prettiest plays of the game was a fake forward pass which netted Kreig about forty yards.

The team certainly showed that it wasn't in condition for they were slow in lining up after certain plays. This will be remedied before long.

Durfee and Vorhees, the officials, both spoke well of the Kenyon team and said they seemed to work with a better spirit than last year. They noted especially that the talking in the backfield had been stopped.

Manager Sanderson has arranged the following schedule for the football team. It is a good one:

Oct. 1—Otterbein at Gambier.
Oct. 8—Denison at Gambier.
Oct. 15—Mt. Union at Canton.
Oct. 22—Reserve at Cleveland.
Oct. 29—Wooster at Wooster.
Nov. 5—Wesleyan at Delaware.
Nov. 12—Case at Cleveland.
Nov. 19—Freshmen vs. Varsity.
Nov. 24—Ohio State at Columbus.

FRESHMEN MINSTRELS

Furnish Usual Excitement

"Cute" would not come near describing the line of Freshmen which marched toward Rosse Hall on the evening of Sept. 22. Their costumes and make-ups, the excellent quality of their voices when singing their national anthem; and their lively steps due probably to the encouragement on the part of the Sophomores, all indicated that Kenyon was going to have one of the best Freshmen minstrels in years. But what a disappointment there was, when the show once began. Indeed from all appearances the athletic rather than the dramatic department will profit by this enterprising class.

At the opening of the program was a Johnson-Jeffries prize fight while two other bouts were held later on in the program. There were many of us who didn't see the original fight last summer, but we will not believe that these were good imitations of it. The Freshmen really acted as if they were afraid of hitting their opponents. In one of the three bouts, the fight waxed fierce and long, but Jeffries instead of redeeming himself, still showed the yellow streak.

Freshman Dunn held the attention of the spectators while he walked about the stage on his hands and did a few acrobatic stunts.

Freshman Bowman, who, we all think, will become a politician some day, tried to uphold the Democratic platform for the coming election. His speech was not effective until, with the aid of a classmate, he used gestures with his arguments. His flowery oratory soon ceased, and he received the "customary applause" from the Sophomores.

The next number announced was supposed to be a quartette. We will not criticize them, but instead advise them to lie low. After all had been given a chance to show their ability in some line, Freshman Bowman dismissed the audience, requesting them to be present at the next Freshmen minstrel which will be held at the beginning of the next college year. We hope that the class of 1915 will be able to give us a more entertaining evening.

Smoker

On Saturday evening, September 24, the first smoker of the year was held in the Bull's Eye of West Wing. It was under the auspices of the Student Lecture committee and was given in order to give the new men a chance to meet with the faculty and other college men.

Coffee, sandwiches, cigars and cigarettes were served and all went away satisfied that there was no hard feeling between the two classes, which that afternoon had participated in the cane rush.

Many From Kenyon Visit Europe

During the past summer Kenyon was well represented in the countries across the Atlantic. On June 25th a party composed of President and Mrs. Peirce, Miss Taylor, and Ray Cahall, '08, sailed from New York on the steamer Chicago. Their tour included France, Italy, Germany and Switzerland.

While in Venice they met another party of Kenyon people including Canon Watson of Bexley; William Allen, '13, Royal Fultz, '10, and Mr. Riblet, of Bexley.

Other Kenyon men who were abroad this summer are: Glenn Skiles, '13, who visited England, Germany, France, Belgium and Italy; Dwight O'Farrell, '14, and "Duke" Martin, '10, who returned to his home in England last summer.
