Dear Madame,

I was your mothers best friend. <sup>I get</sup> The last letter from her was of September 1943 Westerbork. In this she wrote, that she is waiting a certificate for Palestine and that her children Guido and Margot such a certificate have got. I would be very glad, if you can give some information about her and I would be happy to hear, that she is living in Haifa, where her mother and brother in that time were.

You should very obliged me, if you would write to me. I had also the adress of your aunt Dora, but I have lost ~~it~~<sup>it</sup>, perhaps can I get of you this adress.

We all are very glad that the war is over. How is your son? I knew his foto and I had find him such a charming boy.

With kindly regards I am yours

Amsterdam, August 16th 1945
