The activities of the One Hundred and Seventh Commencement will commence on Friday, June 14 at 6 P. M. with the banquet of the Bexley Society and Alumni in Peirce Hall, and will be brought to a close with the annual Commencement Dance which will take place on Monday, June 17 at 10:00 P. M.

Following the Bexley banquet the Kenyon Dramatic club will present "Springtime for Henry" by Benn Levy, in Rosse Hall. The reports gathered from the cast state that the play itself is excellent, and that it is going to be well worth the while of the Alumni to attend.

The Programme for Saturday begins with a meeting of the Committee on the Theological School, at Bexley Hall at 10:00 A. M. followed at 11:00 by the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The next event on the day's programme consists of an exhibition of Polo, riding and flying, at the field near the railway station. This year the team has done some excellent work in polo, and the riding groups have presented several very worth while exhibits.

At 7:30 on Saturday evening the Fraternity, and Non-fraternity banquets and Alumni smoker will take place. For those women and Alumni who do not attend either the banquets or the smokers, the card and billiard rooms in the Commons building will be open, and all guests of the college, and all other persons are invited to make use of these facilities.

On Sunday June 16 there will be a celebration of Holy Communion at the Church of the Holy Spirit at 7:30 A. M. Then at 10:30 A. M. the Morning Service at which the Rev. Dr. Walter R. ## KENYON CLAN HOLDS BANQUET

Mueller Is Elected President

Parkin Greets "Fat"

The last Clan banquet of the current year was held Thursday evening, June 6. The guests were F. Alton Wade, Dr. Peirce, "Genial George" Shaffer, Dr. Drake, Bud Evans, Rudy Kutler.

The evening was featured by short, to-the-point talks by the guests and the senior members of the Clan. Bill Parkin, in the role of toastmaster, set time limits on the speakers, threatening them with the gong should they go beyond their two minutes. The gong proved to be unnecessary, for the talks were all well timed, both by the speakers and the audience. As Dr. Peirce got to his feet he remarked that he had firmly expected to be put in his place by the toastmaster, in his spirit of lofty independence which seniors acquire just before leaving the College. He had expected something like, "Well, Fat, I think we'll give you about one minute and sixteen seconds." Upon completing his short address, Bill complied with a "Thank you, Fat."

Following the addresses, the election of new officers took place. Bob Mueller was elected president, Charles Lord was made the vice president, and Bill Turner was elected secretary. Bill Morgan had already been made treasurer for the remaining two years in his college career.

The "Thrill" brought to a close the most successful and gratifying year in the life of the Kenyon Clan.

M, the class of 1935 will make its Corporate Communion, and at 9:30 A. M. the Morning Prayer service will be said.

The One Hundred and Seventy Commencement will be held in Rosse Hall at 10:00 A. M. on Monday morning. At this time the college is to have the pleasure of having as its commencement speaker the Hon. Wilbur L. Cummings of the class of 1902. Mr. Cummings is well known to Kenyon and his name stands in Kenyon's history as the donor of many wonderful gifts, and as a loyal and true Kenyon man.

At 11:45 A. M. on Monday the meeting of the General Alumni Association will be held in Rosse Hall, followed at 1:00 P. M. by the Alumni luncheon in the Great Hall.

This year's Commencement bids fair to be one of the greatest ever held, as many of the old classes will be returning to the Hill, and many friends and students will be here to welcome them back.

NEW LOAN FUND IS PROPOSED

Alumni To Sponsor Plan

During the past two years the enrollment of the college has grown from 173 to 250 students, and within another two years it is expected that the number will reach the 300 mark. This gratifying increase in enrollment is due to the widened scope of curricular and extra-curricular activities and to the work of the President, the trustees, the faculty, the student body, and the alumni in obtaining more and better men as members of the college. Never in Kenyon's history have her prospects been brighter of having a full enrollment of splendid undergraduates.

In addition to the work of these different groups, certain things have been undertaken here at the college that tend to attract men ready for college to Kenyon. The recent changes in the curriculum, including honors, courses, and seminar methods of study, have put the college far ahead of the field in educational work. Kenyon has increased attractions to students in its School of Aeronautics, School of Equitation, new tennis courts, polo, intramural athletics, Kenyon Singers, and Kenyon Dramatic Association. And with all this the scholastic work of the college was never on a higher plane.

Along with all these improvements there is a sour note of trouble. With largely increased attendance, in the midst of the still lingering depth of the national depression, more than the usual number of students find themselves unable to complete their college courses without outside help. The Curtis Loan Fund, which has been used in the past to make loans to worthy students, has proved entirely inadequate under the strain. The more men at Kenyon, the more there will be who will meet with misfortune—a father's death or business reverses; sickness and mounting expenses at home; younger members of the family to be educated; and several other

F. A. WADE, '26, TALKS TO LARGE CROWD

Tells of Little America

On the evening of June 5th Dr. F. Alton Wade, Kenyon, '26, geologist for the second Byrd Expedition to the Antarctic, speaking before a capacity audience, the largest to attend a lecture at the college in recent years, delivered a lecture under the auspices of the Beta Chapter of Ohio of the Phi Beta Kappa Society. Dr. Wade, tall, blonde, athletic, scholarly, recounted in an exceedingly interesting manner the work of the recent expedition and brought to the attention of his audience many interesting facts that illustrated just how thorough and efficient was the organization and operation of this greatest of modern attempts at polar exploration. Dr. Wade gave a brief account of the preparations for the trip, of the reestablishment of the base at Little America, of the life at the snow-bound colony, and of the practical research work that was done by the large staff of geologists, biologists, physicists, meteorologists, and other scientific men connected with the expedition. During his lecture Dr. Wade paused now and then to relate some of his personal experiences and to tell a number of humorous stories that showed the less serious side of the long sojourn in Antarctica.

The lecture was by far the most interesting one that has been given here for some time. The number of college men in Dr. Wade's audience as compared with those who have attended some of the lectures during the current year indicates in what direction the interest of the student body lies. It is hoped that in the future there will be more lectures that will prove as interesting and beneficial.

ROSSE HALL MAY BE ALTERED

Historic Rosse Hall, which has won the title of the most decrepit and unsightly college building in the world, is to be altered this summer if nothing unforeseen occurs to hinder the process.

A general outline of reconstruction is as follows: The stage is to be removed, which will lengthen the playing floor and also take away from the interior of the gym its likeness to the Mifflinville Opera House. The balcony, which has been of little or no use, will also be removed.

This is a step in the right direction, although it does little to improve the exterior of Kenyon's finest example of moth-eaten architecture. The playing floor will be greatly enlarged, which will undoubtedly be appreciated by the future cagers and spectators.

HENRY ENCK NEW ASSEMBLY HEAD

On the evening of June 3, 1935, the rival political factions tangled in Nu Pi Kappa Hall and after a spirited but short period of nomination, brought forth the following candidates.

For President—Steve Munro; Henry Enck.

For Vice Pres.—Bickford Cogswell; Bob Mueller.

For Sec.-Treas.—Bill Thomas; Tom Hudgins.

The voting, which was tooth and nail throughout, kept the crowd sitting on the floor anxiously awaiting the result. The first result was so close that it demanded a recount to eliminate any possible error in the tabulation of the ballots. The decision gave Enck the presidency, Cogswell the vice-presidency, and Thomas the secretary-treasurer job.

OHIO STATE RIDES OVER KENYON

TAKES TWO—7-3; 8-3.

On Decoration Day, the Kenyon polo team traveled to Columbus where they met the scarlet and gray aggregation of Ohio State. The game, closely fought in the opening chukkers, soon loosened up and the State boys emerged victors, 7-3.

There was no scoring in the first or second chukker, as numerous shots were missed by members of both teams. The Kenyon boys, playing their first outdoor game of the season, had some difficulty in adjusting themselves to the enlarged playing field. However, as they began to get the feel of the turf and the iron-mouthed cavalry horses, the game became faster and the play more interesting. Ohio State was the first to score and they led by the comfortable margin of 3-0 before the Gambier outfit could click. From then on, however, the contest resolved itself into a red hot tussle, with stirrups, helmets, and derogatory remarks flying through the air. The boys in scarlet managed to hang onto their lead and as the final bell was sounded, the score stood at 7-3. McMahon scored twice for Kenyon, and Hathaway, who can't hold horse, girl, suitcase, and whip, scored once.

The second encounter, which was played Saturday, June 1, 1935, also left the Gambierites on the short end of the scoring column. This time the State outfit succeeded in pushing through 8 goals to Kenyon's 3. Kenyon again found themselves behind the eight ball during the first three chukkers, while Ohio State went out to score five goals in these periods. During this time, the Kenyon horsemen had many opportunities to score, but had neither the good fortune nor the eye

For the past few years there have been many shafts of derision aimed at the COLLEGIAN because of its general lassitude and half-baked policies. The new Editor is fully aware of the condition and he realizes that these criticisms have been made with a very good foundation. As a matter of fact, he has at many times allowed himself to wax derisive over the deplorable set-up.

At the very outset, the entire staff wishes to announce with conviction that the hap-hazard method of publishing a college newspaper has come to an end. In other words, a period of reconstruction is in the immediate offing. To begin with, the Editor would like to become acquainted with men who possess enthusiasm and ability in journalistic work. The ability is essential, but without enthusiasm it is worthless. The COLLEGIAN needs men with initiative and vigor. Until such men are found, any plan of reconstruction is out of the question and the possibilities of making any significant improvements are slim.

With these facts in mind, the Editor urges all men who possess a real interest in journalism to make themselves known. The COLLEGIAN cannot become a significant factor in Kenyon life without a staff of able and earnest men.

The Collegian Staff for the year 1935-36 has been definitely elected by the Executive Council. Robert Mueller was elected Editor-in-Chief and Henry Enck Business Manager. Mueller has worked hard for this position and is fully capable of producing a high grade product. Next year the Collegian will be a weekly publication. This means a great deal more work for both the Editor and Business manager. The past year has seen some changes in the paper, which, we hope have been for the better. We have tried through a series of articles, to bring to light reform that we thought necessary for the betterment of the College. We have tried to make the Collegian not only a news organ, which function is entirely for benefit of Alumni, but a publication that would interest the Student Body. We fully believe, contrary to opinion, that the Collegian has been improved. Next year that improvement will continue. To make a publication, such as the Collegian is, a successful publication co-operation by the Student Body is absolutely necessary. The Collegian is the connecting link between the Student Body and the College, and the Student Body and the Alumni. The Collegian has no wish to "bite the mouth that feeds it," and so is in hearty accord with anything that the Student Body may desire. We ask, then for the future editors, that the Student Body cooperate and help make the Collegian, the journalistic representative of your college, one of the finer College newspapers of the country.

In closing the Editors wish to thank all those men of the staff who have worked so faithfully during the past year, and to wish Editor Mueller, Business Manager Enck the best of fortune for the coming year.

LOAN FUND PROPOSED

Kind of hard luck that can befall a man who wants and deserves an education.

It is proposed that the Alumni

Associations take this matter in hand for Kenyon as they do for so many other colleges. A yearly contribution from 1,000 alumni of $2 each to an Alumni Student Loan Fund would solve the problem. It would mean that the Curtis Loan Fund would be supplemented each year by $2,000 which could be loaned to deserving students. As repaid it would in time roll up a revolving fund for this purpose which would be self-sufficient. The terms of the Curtis Loan Fund are interest at 1½% for five years, after which periodic payments and 6% interest. It is proposed to employ the same plan for the Alumni Student Loan Fund. The Fund will belong to the College, to be loaned to deserving students under the direction of a board of five to consist of R. J. Kutler, Director of Athletics, George B. Shaffer, Assistant Dean, and three alumni to be chosen by the executive council. The loans will be available to all students, including Freshmen, and so far as possible, recommendations from the alumni associations will be followed as to the students to be helped from their districts.

REYNARD THE FOX

Patrol Leaders—

Not so long ago Math 24 (insurance) made its annual trek to the Ohio State Life Insurance Co. in Columbus to inspect divers computing machines and stenographers. The class went down in two sections, the second section was to meet Dr. Bumer at 2:00 P. M. at the offices. 2:00 P. M. arrived but not Dr. Bumer, whereupon the members rather cautiously edged into the outer office and inquired of the gal at the desk—

Stickney—"Has Dr. Bumer arrived?"

Gal at Desk—"Dr. Bumer? I'm afraid that I wouldn't know."

Stickney—"Well, you see it's this way. We're supposed to make a kind of tour thru your place and we're to meet Dr. Bumer here."

The young lady, puzzled, exclaimed further that she was entirely ignorant of the arrangements. Suddenly her face brightened as if she suddenly understood everything and cried.

"Oh, I know, 'You're the visiting Boy Scouts.'"

Lights Out—

If some of the current theories concerning the management of the allegedly unmanageable Kenyon student should materialize, we shouldn't be surprised if before long, the cry of lights out will be heard about the Hill as the current is shut off with a master switch from over Maude Hickin's bed, and the boys will scramble into bed. The criticism of some of these plans is that, should they go thru, the boys will probably take to making fudge over the mantles and indulging in midnight "snacks." And then where would we be?

Charley Ross—

If you don't know who Charley Ross is, you should know, but if you don't, we suggest that you lose no time in finding out. Well, anyway, the other day (Tuesday) Charley, himself dropped in and after seeing the general knowledge test which was being given to the sophomores and seniors, suggested that the test was incomplete and wholly irrelevant as it stood. To remedy this condition, he wondered if his own famous "Charley Ross Test" might not be incorporated in the "ovenbird" and "vegetables benefited by a heavy frost department." Here goes—

Charley Ross Test No. 6B

Instructions—

Upon completing test, place all papers on chair immediately behind Tom Wilson.

Write with pen, pencil or charcoal.

Honor system prevails.

Do not start until instructor gives signal. If not ready, demand another signal. No penalty inflicted.

Work as fast as you can, but don't guess. Remember, the Maine.

Al right, now, O— Go—

(Answer any seven, but no more than seven).

1. Are you Charley Ross? Discuss and furnish evidence.

2. One of the following is not a famous band. (a) Paul Whiteman (b) Ray Noble (c) Al Kavelin (d) Glen Gray.

3. Are you white or black. Answer yes or no.

4. Who was Pat O'Dea?

5. Who said, "No use, sister, I seen you when you got on."

6. What is a twerp? Never mind this one.

7. What is your age? Do not guess.

8. Is some brass better than no brass?

Time's Up.

Obituaries—

Five thousand loyal polo fans fly to Columbus for game.

Bud "Gobbler" Curtis journeys to Marietta. Comes back with just a few slight scratches.

BALDWIN-WALLACE WINS NET CROWN

Hoyt of Marietta Singles King

The Ohio Conference tennis tournament, held here at Gambier for the second consecutive year, provided many upsets and thrills, but failed to come up to the 1934 tourney in sheer ability.

Hoyt, of Marietta, proved to be the ultimate winner by defeating Bald of Muskingum, 2-6, 6-2, 7-5, 2-6, 6-1, in a heated match that went the limit. A packed gallery took advantage of perfect weather to see the finals and often were amazed by the net play of Hoyt, the base-line smashes of Bald, or passing shots by either man. Hoyt won his right to the finals by trouncing Schoen, of Baldwin-Wallace, 6-0, 6-4, and Bald reached his runner-up position by whipping Webb of Baldwin-Wallace, 6-3, 6-2, 4-6, 9-7.

Many 1934 players were in the line-up and the gallery looked for them to advance far, but they failed to come up to expectations. For instance, Potter, of Oberlin, seeded No. 1, was eliminated in the first round by Fox, of Case. Fox, in turn, lost out to Schoen in his next engagement. "West Point" Wiley, of Wooster, was doomed by Bald in the quarter-finals. Finally, our own Bill Turner was defeated in the first round by Webb, a man he eliminated the year previous. Bill atoned for this by copping the consolation tourney, and will be in there winning at the main tourney next year.

Baldwin-Wallace managed to win the doubles tournament after a heated clash with Case. The verdict went 6-4, 7-5, 6-1. But what was easily the most enjoyable match of the doubles came in the semi-finals when Case, with a great team of Fox and Rick, after dropping the first two sets by a 2-6 count, turned the tables to triumph 6-3, 6-2, 7-5. Kenyon dropped its first match to Wooster, and they in turn lost out to Case.

The entire program was run off under the most favorable conditions and gave Kenyon a chance to exhibit courts equal to any in Ohio. Let us hope that next year will see the tournament again at Gambier.

INTRAMURAL SUMMARY

A brief summary of the intra-mural sport activities for 1934-35. The games which were played with a great deal of enthusiasm and in which 90 percent of the college participated revealed several up and coming players. In football South Leonard played off a tie by edging out Middle Kenyon. Athletic Director Kutler and Evans chose the following men for an all-intra-mural football team: Sammon H. B.; McGinnis H. B.; Hixon Q. B.; Gould F. B.; Sebach R. E.; Jasper L. E.; Eustis and Thackeray tackles, and Taylor center.

Middle Leonard easily downed North Leonard 16-14, 15-10, 15-6 in the finals of the volleyball tournament.

At the end of a very interesting basketball schedule Middle Hanna defeated South Leonard in a tight game for the basketball crown. The tournament revealed many promising players for next years varsity five. After a great deal of difficulty coaches Evans and Kutler picked an all intra-mural first and sec-

South Leonard, champions of the White intra-mural soft ball league, easily rolled up the winning score of 19-1 on Middle Hanna, champions of the Purple league, for possession of the coveted baseball trophy. East Wing swam to victory at the intra-mural swimming meet held in Mt. Vernon. Thomas and Geringer were the principal point getters for the East Wingers who captured 49 points, while their nearest rival, Middle Hanna, obtained 28 points. Sebach was their highest scorer.

South Leonard in the intra-mural track meet May 1 edged out Middle Kenyon. Middle Leonard took third place. Boren was outstanding in the long distance runs while Sebach and Clark broke intra-mural records in the high jump and pole vault events respectively.

The tennis meet with Ohio Wesleyan that was called off May 9 because of rain was held on May 20 on the courts behind Old Kenyon. The final score was 4-2 in favor of Kenyon. May 31 the tennis team mowed through Otterbein 6-1. In the meet which was held at Westerville the Purple proved victorious in all but one singles match.

Golfers Win Four: Lose Five

In the golf season this year Kenyon was victorious at all home meets, but suffered defeat while playing on the courses of the opposing teams. The nucleus of next year's golf team will be Lord and Mueller who, with other promising golf prospects, should have a successful season. The games recently played are as follows: On May 16 the Kenyon golfers met Oberlin for a return engagement at Oberlin but Kenyon lost 18-0 in this second meet with them. The Wittenberg team came here on May 17 and Kenyon defeated them 17-2.

JUNE DANCE BAND SIGNED

Activities at Kenyon will be closed with the June Dance, which will be held Monday the 17th, from ten P. M. to five A. M. in the Great Hall of the Commons Building.

The dance committee, Bill Thomas and Russ Gruber have secured Dick Trimble and his Strollers, a Newark band, which made the May Tea Dance a great success. Trimble has recently added a girl vocalist to his organization.

Alumni are urged to attend, for the dance is sure to be a social success.

NON-FRATERNITY BANQUET PLANNED

On June the fifteenth Middle Kenyon, the non-fraternity division of Kenyon College is planning to hold an Alumni Banquet. It is to be held at the Alcove in Mt. Vernon at 7:30 P. M. Invitations have been sent to five hundred Middle Kenyon Alumni; and from the number of acceptances now being received, it is expected that from fifty to a hundred old members of Middle Kenyon will attend.

This is the first time in many years that a plan of this sort has been attempted by the non-fraternity division. It is the result of a spirit brought forth by the generous gift of the parlours by Mr. Wilbur L. Cummings '02 and thru the untiring efforts of promoting a spirit by Mr. J. Crawford Brooks.

It is hoped that Dr. Peirce and other non-fraternity members of the faculty will be among the guests at this event. The full cooperation of the alumni is being received as can be told by the number of encouraging letters coming in. One of the most interesting of these letters is one from Rev. Samuel J. French '67 expressing his interest, but regretting that he cannot attend the banquet because of debility.

PACIFIC COAST CLUB MEETS

The Pacific Coast Club held its first meeting Friday evening June 7. This club has as its purpose the promotion of an alumni spirit on the coast and the creation of interest among prospective students. President Peirce, Dean Gould, Rudolph J. Kutler athletic director, and George Shaffer assistant dean were in attendance at the dinner and the meeting. The charter members are Mr. Brooks, Mr. Lieurance and Mr. Conover.

POLO GAMES

to put the ball between the posts. In the fourth and fifth chukkers, the boys got hold of themselves long enough to outride and outshoot their opponents, scoring three goals to none for State. The sixth chukker State scored three more, bringing the total to eight.

The Ohio State polo squad, which has been in fine working order for many years, is unquestionably the finest in the Big Ten, having won this year's title hands down. With this fact in mind, Kenyon did very well, when one considers our inexperience and lack of familiarity with strange horses and a strange field. An indoor and outdoor schedule has been arranged for next year and undoubtedly Kenyon will be more of a threat in her next games.

OUT IN YONKERS

The Mt. Vernon Republican-News, an enterprising sheet when it does not choose to run headlines about Kenyon false arrests, recently ran an article stating that there were three men under consideration for Bud Evans' old post. The three are: Lambert, now at Arkansas; Angus King, at Withrow High School in Cincinnati, and brother of the more famous Dana; and Finnigan, whose career has been devoted to the Ohio Conference.

Lambert has already visited Gambier, has left a nice impression here, and is supposed to give his decision soon. THE COLLEGIAN hopes that he will decide to accept the position here, for he is undoubtedly well qualified for the job. Playing at Arkansas, he won letters in four sports each year, and later formed a friendship with Francis Schmidt which has been extremely valuable to him in this business of coaching.

Lambert, if located here, could coach football, basketball, and baseball; but the real advantage in having a man of his calibre is for tennis. It is said that he has beaten Wilmer Allison, a nationally known player, not consistently but more than occasionally. It can readily be seen what an advantage it would be for Bill Turner, Bob Stamm, Russ Gruber, and Hal Henderson to receive coaching from such a distinguished net personality. Because, then, of the added value of acquiring Lambert, the feeling is among the student body that he would be a better choice than either King or Finnigan. Our tennis team has been sorely in need of instruction. Possessed of the finest courts in the state with the prospect of the Conference tourney being enacted here often, Kenyon's netmen should be on a par with the best Ohio has to offer. Lambert might make such a thing possible.

So Gene Tunney is coming here to referee a boxing card next year! It might be advisable to plead with the student body to refrain from asking him the low-down on that "long count" in the Dempsey fight. He has probably answered that question so many times, though, that he'll expect it.

Another item the Republican-News is responsible for is one to the effect that in the past few years Kenyon would have had a good swimming team because of the efforts of Bill Veeck and one "Tarzan." I'm sure that every student remembers Bill Veeck, but just who is "Tarzan?"

The recent losses of Kenyon's polo team to the strong Ohio State outfit, 7-3, and 8-3, close through they were, failed to arouse much enthusiasm among athletic rooters here. Yet, you can imagine the ballyhoo if the Purple should hold State to such close scores in football. It just goes to show that polo is still to be appreciated here. Let us hope, anyway, that these fine efforts against State, arouse some organization here to the tune of $50. We would like to join the Inter-collegiate.

INTRAMURAL TENNIS NEARS FINALS

In the intra-mural tennis singles tournament this spring the representatives from North Leonard, West Wing, Middle Kenyon, and East Wing have reached the semi-finals. Two men were chosen to represent each division on the Hill. The remaining matches will be played off in the near future. Manz South Hanna defeated Hathaway Middle Leonard, and Beatty of East Wing defeated Motto of Middle Hanna for positions in the preliminaries. In the next bracket McKay North Leonard defeated Manz of South Hanna. Brown of East Wing defeated Jasper of South Leonard. Craig of North Hanna defeated Sebach of Middle Hanna. Kayser of West Wing defeated Wood of Middle Kenyon.

Beatty of East Wing defeated Wuerdeman of Middle Leonard. Wilder of South Hanna defeated McMahon of West Wing. Wilson of Middle Kenyon defeated Vortiede of North Hanna. McKay of North Leonard, Kayser of West Wing, Beatty of East Wing, Wilson or Middle Kenyon eliminated their opponents for place in the semi-final bracket.
