BUDDY ROGERS TO "SWING" MAY DANCE

MATRICULATION

The Matriculation Service for the year will be held on Monday, May the second, at half-past eleven, in the College Chapel. As usual, the morning classes on Monday, the second, will be shortened by ten minutes. Gordon Keith Chalmers.

CLASSES SHORTENED FOR MATRICULATION MONDAY, MAY 2ND

Those eligible to matriculate are freshmen and others who have not matriculated, who have completed at least twelve hours of work for a semester with an average grade of 3.

All matriculants will be expected to be present at the service on Monday morning, the second. All students enter Kenyon college on probation. Matriculation gives final credit for a certificate of entrance and accords the student full standing in college.

"A student is admitted to matriculation when he has sustained a satisfactory probation. Matriculation gives accredited membership in the institution, entitles the student to an honorable dismissal, and is essential to his obtaining a degree. The public exercise of matriculation occurs on or soon after the opening day of each semester. The candidate then signs the following obligation:

We, the subscribers, undergraduates of Kenyon College, being now admitted to the rite of matriculation, do promise, each for himself:

1. That we will faithfully observe and obey the laws and regulations of the College, and all authoritative acts of the president and faculty, so long as we are connected with the College; and as far as may be in our power, on all occasions we will give the influence of our good example and precept to induce others in like circumstances to do the same.

2. As faithful sons of Kenyon College, we will render to her as our alma mater, at all times and on all occasions, due honor and reverence, striving to promote her welfare by all proper means, and abstaining carefully from all things that may tend to impair her influence or limit her usefulness as a seminary of learning.

BUSINESS MANAGER

Those wishing to apply for the office of business manager for the coming year will please submit written application to A. Rodney Boren, secretary of executive council, by the first week in May.

HENDERSON MADE N. I. F. C. PRESIDENT

Flying Club Returns With Nat'l Flying Club Trophy

Starting three years ago as a small middle western college which was scarcely able to demand recognition at the annual flying club conferences held in Washington, Kenyon has been able in the short space of these few years to build itself up through its outstanding flying record to a position where in the recently held conference, schools such as Harvard, Stanford, Michigan, etc., readily followed Kenyon leadership. Because of such a final accumulation of importance by the Kenyon Club, Clark Henderson, '39, and treasurer of the Kenyon Flying Club, was elected to the position of President of the National Intercollegiate Flying Club. In assuming this office, Henderson takes over the work of Dan Martin of Harvard, president of the club last year. Other newly elected officers under Henderson are a secretary-treasurer from Stanford, and three regional heads, one from Harvard, one from Akron and one from Stanford.

During the conference at Washington Kenyon was presented with the National trophy which they became entitled to last year when they won the National meet on Long Island.

The Annual Mid-West meet held every year at Kenyon was discussed in the business meetings, and May 21st was set as the date on which it is to be held this year.

Attending the conference from Kenyon were Club President Bill L'aurance, who was acting secretary, Rodney Boren and Gus Sonenfield who were Kenyon delegates, and Clark Henderson, Stu Rose, and Donald Gretzer, instructor.

Dr. Jones Resigns

Dr. Malcolm Bancroft Jones has resigned from the Kenyon College faculty to join the Department of Romance Languages in Connecticut College at New London, Connecticut. Dr. Jones will take up his new duties in September of this year.

FIRST SCHOLARSHIP EXAMINATIONS HELD

Sixty Candidates Will Compete For Kenyon Awards

Kenyon's newly inaugurated Prize Scholarship program for entering freshmen of high school or prep school graduation will get underway Saturday, as approximately 60 candidates will gather at designated places in the country for scholastic competition.

Comparable to the scholarship programs of Oxford and Cambridge, the prizes consist of 10 scholarships valued at $1400 apiece. They contain full tuition for four years. One will be awarded to each winner of scholastic competition in as many different subjects, providing the student's high school requirements are satisfactory.

The Prize Scholarships, according to President Chalmers, are designed for students generally good in their work, and at the same time excelling in one important preparatory subject. The four-year prizes are held by the winners as long as they maintain the Kenyon average for scholarships and satisfy general conditions.

Some 30 competitors will represent different high schools and prep schools of Ohio, Saturday, when they come to Kenyon for the exams. Twenty-nine others will meet at such designated places as Cranbrook School near Detroit, and the Francis Parker School of Chicago as out-of-state candidates. Approximately one-third of the competitors have already been accepted for entrance next fall.

The set consists of over a thousand and phonograph records selected with great care by a group of musical critics and music colleges. These records come both from this

by Williams

Men of Kenyon have broken into scandalous print. What's more, you, that is, some of you have had your pictures taken. By whom may we ask? The New York Times? No. The Christian Science Monitor? No. The Womans Home Companion? Again no. We have been recognized by none other than the great literary and journalistic gem of the world—The Sunday Star.

Why would such a mighty publication turn to Little Kenyon for subject matter? I wondah. But anyway, the photographers came last Saturday night and snapped some pictures. It is not known just whose pictures were taken, but it is rumored that Mr. Lemmon was snapped in a rather embarrassing pose. It was also stated by some that he was playing the organ when the picture was taken.

Before the Star men came down they notified the COLLEGIAN. They wanted some men to arrange to have dates so they could get a little of the Star's own human interest (better known as a sex motif) into the pictures. In fact, in order to make sure that the fair sex would be represented amply on the scene, the Star brought down with them a little lady—to do a little posing with some of the Kenyon men. Whether they need-

LACADAISICAL KENYON

The lacadaisical and uninterested attitude on the part of Kenyon men which has been described as unfortunate by the last two or three COLLEGIANS and by many of those included in Kenyon College might merit some closer consideration to see if such out and out condemnation of this trait is justified.

That which leads to the distinction surrounding Kenyon and Kenyon men may be principally due to the particular closeness under which they, Kenyon men, live, and the general unity of action which they exercise. This oneness of action is not one of thought. There is possibly no other school in which there are greater and more various differences of opinion. We are living in such closeness to each other that we have long ago come to the realization of each other's trends of thoughts and peculiarities. What sessions are held rarely dwell for any length of time upon differences of opinion.

Without reflection this might result in the casual observer believing that thought and opinions are lacking in the students. Yet Kenyon men are neither blasé nor bored. They have debated among themselves off and on for years; have formed their own opinions and not only know the ideas of others, but all their arguments.

While Kenyon ideas are far from uniform, what proves to be the controlling factor in conjunctive living is the intimate understanding between individuals or groups; a condition which consequently leads to a natural reticence and lack of demonstrativeness.

This is well exemplified by a decided absence of hero worship here.

Men, at least outwardly, attempt to turn their backs upon any sort of demonstrative praise, especially in a strictly masculine gathering. This human trait is so strong that, as is evidenced here, condemnation falls upon the shoulders of both he who gives and he who receives acclaim. Back slapping here is simply not done in public. Campus fires are not built for returning heroes and victors. Elaborate ceremonial presentations are not made. Evidence of this non-acceptance of backslapping crops up on the campus rather occasionally. A good example is the manner in which attempts at the typical mass unified cheering are received. It is not that appreciation of records is not realized. We do think highly of accomplishments of Kenyon men and Kenyon organizations. The most sincere form of appreciation is registered in the quiet acceptance of deeds done.

Specific critics of this order of things tend in their criticisms to maintain that superior attainments are not sufficiently appreciated. If these critics will take time out to recall the various conversations in which they have taken part, or which they have overheard, they cannot help but recall that the praise spoken there was of the greatest enthusiasm. Such spontaneous enthusiasm at Kenyon is met with only in the sanctity of small gatherings. This appreciation is the most sincere type of acceptance of deeds well done.

Tuition Jump
Is Wide Spread

Tuition at Kenyon will next year be raised to $350 a year, rather than the present $300. Total expenses for the year, excluding special fees for laboratory courses and the cost of books, amount to about $820.

At Haverford College, Haverford, Penna., the undergraduate tuition has this year been raised from $375 to $400. Possible range of total expenses for room, board, and tuition there are from $725 to $850 a year.

As compared with this figure, the tuitions at Swarthmore and Amherst, for example, are also $400.

RUMOR HAS IT

Queen Bess is going to hie herself back to Boston when she leaves the College Commons this year.

That at a recent meeting of the Gambier Parent-Teachers Association, the subject of floats in a Northwest Territory parade was discussed, and it was hoped that Kenyon College would not want to have a float because it would probably be a truck loaded with beer that would have to be drunk before the parade was over.

That everybody was pleasantly surprised and pleased with the way the Psi U convention went off.

That the store-room space of Harmer's old store—now being repaired—will be used to store Library over-flow. Don Ferguson will be in charge.

That Lucy Ellen Lamb will soon be married.

That a certain student now in Kenyon has a private income of more than $50,000 a year.

That Teddy Bear Whitaker needs an operation.

That Mr. Inman recently played antipetition to Mr. Settle.

That the Society Editor of The Collegian was called on the carpet.

That Arthur P. West writes the Society Column.

That two delegates to the Psi U. convention wore toupees, and that one delegate had a glass eye.

That Nellie Gage and Little-Man What Now Ashford had a spat.

That the Psi U. convention cost about $2000.

That Davie Jasper will have a date next Friday night.

That the administration frowns on one of Kenyon's oldest traditions. One of the best things we have will be abandoned May 2, by order of Mr. Borgia.

That Cesare Borgia IS taking it.

That the unfavorable publicity the College received because of the Rockford-Kenyon dance was a result of a news-release of the Kenyon Publicity Department.

That Howard Lane Foland was off the campus this Easter vacation for the first time in forty years.

That the Publicity Department and the President's Office are that way about each other.

That K. C. Christian will not be back next year—that John I. Albach will.

That Jasper did not tell the truth when the President's secretary asked him for an explanation of the word "turf."

That the Editor of The Collegian thwarted a plan of the Columbus Star to take some naughty pictures at Kenyon.

That a picture of John Crowe Ransom will soon appear in Life.

That a new man for the classics department has been appointed.

That it was not a horse that kicked Joe Viner and broke his jaw.

That Malcolm P. Jones will not be connected with Kenyon next year.

Cite Universite, Paris

At its last meeting the faculty agreed to credit work done according to a plan for a junior year abroad, now being developed by Dr. Donald Lowrie, director, United States House of the Cite Universite, Paris. It is not necessary to be a major in French to take advantage of this plan. Any students who are interested may get full information at the registrar's office.

Dexter Invites

Notice has been received from the Educational Press Bureau that Exeter College, officially known as the University College of the South West of England, is again extending a cordial invitation to American students to spend their junior year abroad in study at this internationally famous institution.

Exeter College for years has encouraged the enrollment of students from foreign lands, having as a result a student group of unusually strong cosmopolitan flavor. According to the president of Exeter College: "There is great hope for the world in the potential of internationalism in the educated youth of the nations." America has always been well represented in the junior year at Exeter.

Meteorological Base Established At Kenyon

The United States Department of Agriculture is establishing a permanent recording meteorological station at the Kenyon airport this week, as a part of its program of soil conservation and flood control. With this equipment seasonal data of rainfall, wind, temperature, and barometric pressure will be obtained. Self recording instruments will be installed which will give continuous twenty-four hour graphs.

Later in the spring an electric hook up will be made with the anemometer, (used to measure wind direction and velocity) which will carry recordings into the hangar for instantaneous observation of wind velocity and direction.

According to Mr. Donald Gretzer "It is hoped that this valuable addition to the Kenyon Airport will lead the way toward a complete meteorological station here soon."

Why Yes, Pango!

Here I am dilly and dallying over hilly and valley enjoying the green-ling verdure and flowering buds of nascent Spring when I came across a little figure of a man sitting pensively on the banks of the old Kokosing. It is little Pango and he is throwing pebbles in the stream.

Darling, says Pango, as I near, it's lovely being here with you. I'm glad you think so, I answer surprised at Pango's tone. No, no, shouts Pango I wasn't talking to you. Oh, I say looking around for someone else, who were you talking to? Nobody, says Pango, I was just dreaming.

Go right on dreaming, I suggest, I'll just sit down over here and listen. Haah, says Pango making a nasty face. Were you dreaming about a girl, I ask. Well, oh, says Pango, well, yes. What kind of a girl, I ask. What's it to you, says Pango. Well, I say, if you'd like to have a girl here, I think I could fix it. Yeah, says Pango brightening up. Sure, I say, what kind of a girl do you want? Oh, you know the kind, says Pango, pretty, charming, lovely, witty, and brunette. Would she have to talk mush, ah, much, I ask. No, says Pango, I'd be satisfied just to have her around. Then, I say, you're all fixed. Are you sure about all this, says Pango, or are you just leading me on.

Sure I'm sure, I say, there's a corporation in Chicago who can make any kind of girl for anybody. Gosh, exclaims Pango reverently, what a corporation. Well, I say, just give.....let's see.....25.....26.....28.50.

What's that for, asks Pango. That's for commission and express charges, I explain. How much are the express charges, asks Pango. About 12.50, I say. That's an awful lot, says Pango, couldn't that be whittled down a little. Why Pango, I say, you wouldn't want her to arrive all broken up, would you?

Well, no, admits Pango. I knew you'd feel that way about it, I say, you're always the little gentleman. Yeah, Pango beams, aren't I. Okeh, I say, give me the money and I'll order her this afternoon. Say, says Pango, what the devil is the name of this corporation, I'd like to know.

I don't remember right now, I say, the something wax works. It's in Chicago. Go away, go away, screams Pango, throwing another pebble at the river but missing it and hitting me by mistake, go away and let dream. All that happened three weeks ago and I haven't seen little Pango since. For all I know he's still dreaming.

Letters

The COLLEGIAN assumes no responsibility for views expressed in this column.

Editor Kenyon Collegian:
Dear Sir:

Presenting for your benefit a one-act play entitled: "Athletic Appreciation at Kenyon," or "Why Should We Give Up Beer for Sports." Scene: Occasion of presenting letters and sweaters and watch charms to the members of the only undefeated team the college has seen in over a quarter of a century.....the SWIMMING TEAM.....and to the basketball team of the current year. Characters: one unimpressive athletic director, a bunch of half-baked creampuffs for students, too blamed eager to swallow a few tardy mouthfuls of food than give the boys who worked so hard a half-decent hand.

I don't blame the students for their inattention far so much as those who planned the slipshod manner of presentation. Rudy Kutler stated: "In accordance with the constitution of the Student Assembly, I....." Is that the whole reason behind it? If that's the case—hasn't that worthy constitution been waived in more cases than one?

Does it mean anything to the college, to the students, to the administration, to the athletic department to brag about an undefeated team? Evidently not! Doesn't the college believe in giving the men who strove so hard, who really trained well, who brought a touch of athletic glory to the school, a bit of encouragement, a bit of cheer to carry on in future years? No!

It doesn't take much to make a chap, a team feel good. A banquet, even in the Commons Main Hall.....all the team sitting together, a few organized cheers for them, congratulations to the COACH by the President, by the Athletic Director, by the head of the student body. I happen to know that the swimming team intends to present their great coach, Chuck Imel with a gift. What time would have been more appropriate than at such a gathering.....all the school enjoying it, all the students really pepped up.....and they would be!

Was this scene in the Commons Monday night a sample of that certain spirit I've heard so much about and seen so little of since I've been on the Hill? Is it occasions like that that make Kenyon different.....that make alumni so proud of her?

Now, where does the fault lie? Is it with the students? I don't think they even knew what was coming off, for at my table we couldn't even make out the names of the boys who received the awards until they came forward. Does it lie with the President and the administration? Is he too busy to take a few moments out from his prize-scholarships to help celebrate a real victory by his own students? Does it lie with a cheap athletic department?

The Lord only knows and he won't tell! But still, I feel that it was a slap in the face to offer such a slight to any team, whether they were champs or not, as was offered the SWIMMING TEAM Monday night! Senior on a losing basketball team were given gold charms. Maybe they deserved them.....but the CHAMPS were awarded even their meager gifts last.

Our swimming team has given athletics at Kenyon a boost. Their exploits in the pool will make good reading in the Collegian Publicity, but I won't blame a single man on that team returning to swim for Dear Old Alma Mater next year, if he follows in the age old rut of "I don't give a hoot what happens to the team"—no one cares—Come on bud, let's have a brew!"

Signed,

HUGH ROBERT LAWRENCE.

PURPLE GOLFERS BOW TO MARIETTA

The Kenyon College golf team opened its 1938 season Saturday at the hands of Marietta at the latter's historic course.

The outstanding feature of the match was the superb playing of Cawley, who played number one position for Marietta. He toured a hilly and difficult course in 71, one over par, to defeat the Lord's Clemments. Cawley holds the course record of 67 and for the first few holes of the match appeared to be out to lower it. He toured the first nine in 34, which is two under par, only to come back on the back nine in 37.

It was the strangeness of the course that figured most prominently in Kenyon's defeat. Playing on muddy fairways that two weeks ago were under water and greens that were hardly in playing condition the team was seriously handicapped, but at the same time showed promise for future matches.

Friday, April 29, the golfers will journey to Granville and meet the Denison aggregation while on Saturday they will open their home schedule meeting Ohio Wesleyan at the Mt. Vernon Country Club.

ed her is not known, but it is rumored that Fuzzie Macleary conducted her about the school and showed her just what Kenyon was like.

After the Star men left, there was much wonder at just what pictures they took, and what pictures would be printed. Rumors got started and finally a few definite facts came out. First, that as the typical Kenyon man the Star had a picture of J. W. Peoples scurrying back and forth with phonograph records. Then, as a human interest shot, a picture of A. C. Bernstein was taken as he was entertaining friends in the Sigma Pi parlor. It is also a definite fact that a picture of Stu Rose was obtained.

Things went very nicely for the Star men when they first arrived, for Bob Mueller, '37, showed them about the place. They were getting such good pictures of fine things under his worthwhile guidance, that they suddenly lost Bob somewhere and proceeded with their picture taking alone. Thus, friends, nobody knows just what pictures were taken. That is the reason why you see the worried frowns on the foreheads of half of Kenyon. That is why you see men starting to pack their trunks and fill their cars with belongings. It is rumored that Doc Jyrock has bought a one way ticket to Borneo, while Francis Boyer has been having long conferences with the Star people, trying to talk them out of printing a picture of him. Even Art West is wondering if a picture of him fixing some pipe-like structures will be printed...

OBERLIN SPANKED SOUNDLY BY KENYON

Purple Netters Sweep All Sets To Score First Season Cleanup

The Kenyon netters defeated Oberlin College on their opponents' courts last Saturday afternoon sweeping the meet 9-0 winning six singles events and three doubles matches. The Kenyon team, while playing without the services of their ace number one man, Don McNeill, still had too much on the ball for the Oberlin team.

Morey Lewis met Norton of Oberlin and while he had the stiffest competition, he had little trouble in disposing of him 6-4, 6-4. Pryor trounced Holdeman 6-2, 6-1 as Reeder spanked Hornbeck 6-0, 6-1. Graebner and Wuerdman playing at 4 and 5 positions each disposed of their opponents; the former beating Seibens 6-0, 6-2 and the latter edged out a 6-4, 7-5 victory over Lirsch also of Oberlin. Milroy Olds had the stiffest match of the afternoon, going three sets with Fraizier of Oberlin whom he beat 3-6, 8-6, 6-0.

In the doubles Lewis and Pryor trounced Holdeman and Hornbeck 6-0, 6-2. Reeder and Wuerdman had little trouble beating Hubbard and Cady, 6-1, 6-2. Graebner and Cochrane defeated Oish and Fraizier of Oberlin 6-0, 6-0.

Trackmen Beat Otterbein; Submerged By Denison

Although Denison scored a 126 points the latest edition of Rudy Kutler's cindermen managed to get enough points to edge out Otterbein in a three way track meet between Denison, Otterbein and Kenyon at Granville last Saturday afternoon.

This year's team although much stronger in man power showed in their last meet that still a great amount of conditioning still remains to be done.

Rodney Boren, star senior miler, took the only first for the purple in that event. John Puffer scored a second in the high jump as Olin and Clark rang up the same in the discus and pole vault respectively. Michaels acquired three thirds aggregating them in the high jump, high hurdles and low hurdles. While "Hap" Sparks was gaining a third in the broad jump, Jim Wende, promising sophomore, ran a beautiful 880-yard race for a third place.

Joe Millar netted two fourths for himself, acquiring them in 100-yard dash and broad jump. Dick Olin picked up two fourths in the high hurdles and javelin. McMullin and Shaw, also sophomores, each garnered a fourth, the former in the two-mile race, the latter in the shot put. All told, the Kenyon trackmen netted 30 points, five more than Otterbein.

KENYON NINE FALLS TO OBERLIN ATTACK

Tho Defeated Imel's Squad Shows Promise Of An Improved Season

Kenyon lost the opening baseball game to Oberlin last Saturday afternoon, 8-1, as English, the Oberlin pitcher, held the Kenyon batters to seven well scattered hits, fanned seven and walked one. Koegler of Kenyon went eight innings for eight hits, walking six and striking out three.

The game was marked by five Kenyon errors two of which can be attributed to Captain Skip Wright's sore throwing arm. Oberlin bunched their hits in the first inning for three runs, picked up one run in the fourth, fifth, and seventh, and gained two in the eighth. Reed of Oberlin smashed a long hit for a home run scoring Schmidt who was on base ahead of him in the first inning.

Kenyon also scored their run in the first inning when Baker tripled and was sent home on Long's single, bringing in their only run. Griffin of Kenyon finished the last inning for the home club striking out two and walking one and causing the other batter to pop out weakly.

SCHINE'S VERNON NOW OFFERS KENYON MEN A THIRD CHOICE

By JOE PEOPLES

An event of more than small importance to Kenyon students will be the opening this Friday of the new Vernon Theatre on the Public Square in Mt. Vernon. The reason for considering the occasion of great interest is obvious. Most Kenyon men spend more time at the movies than at any other one activity during their entire college life. Having a newer and finer theatre to attend is welcome news.

It was the privilege of one of the Collegian staff to inspect the new Vernon Theatre a few days ago as the finishing touches were being made on the interior. The first general impression upon entering the theatre is one of gay and lavish use of color. On the walls, in the furnishings, the drapes, lights, and in the carpentering there is a variety of pleasing colors. One could hardly walk from the box office to his seat without catching some of the spirit of gay and joyous recreation and happiness which all this color suggests.

One of the richest features of the interior is the use of a blue cloth material of handsome woven pattern over the side walls of the entire auditorium. Above, higher on the walls, are murals and great sunken panels, lighted indirectly. The deeply cushioned plush seats are in red, and a deep carpet is laid over every exposed floor area.

At one end of a spacious lobby a broad stairway leads to the balcony and to the second floor lounge. Above the balcony is the projection room which houses the very heart of the theatre, its projection equipment. In his case, the equipment is very unusual. Mr. James Platt has been honored by being made manager of the very first theatre in the United States to have a new type of sound projection equipment of a revolutionary sort. It combines the best features of both RCA and Western Electric patents, and will operate in a fashion superior to any equipment now in use anywhere. Experts from Chicago, New York and other major cities have been visiting Mt. Vernon in large numbers during the past week to inspect the new type equipment, and, presumably, to copy it in their theatres.

The entire theatre is, of course, equipped with air conditioning apparatus which will cool in the summer and clean and humidify the air in the winter. Special attachments have been made to provide sound equipment for the hard of hearing in a number of seats in the house. All the drinking fountains have specially refrigerated water, and are faced by "three dimensional" mirrors, lighted indirectly with neon tubes.

A large stage, orchestra pit, and dressing rooms will accommodate stage performances of all kinds. It is said that the Kenyon Singers are to appear on this stage in the very near future.

The prices at the new theatre will be the same as the prices have been at the Vine, thirty cents in the afternoon and thirty-five cents at night. At the Vine, meanwhile, a policy will be inaugurated of double features all the time with slightly lower prices than at present. The new Vernon Theatre will present all the special attractions now offered by the Vine, including the Saturday midnight show. The Vine will have no midnight shows from now on.

SATURDAY IS DEADLINE FOR SNAPSHOT ENTRIES

Rahming Gives Aid

For Kenyon photographers, this week is the last opportunity to prepare and send in entries for the Photographic Show. The last day to enter photographs is this Saturday, April 30th.

This show is being made possible by Mr. Robert A. Weaver of the class of 1912, and offers three prizes: $5 for the best portrait, $5 for the best landscape, and $5 for the best sport photograph. The excellent darkroom, in the basement of Leonard Hall is also a gift of Mr. Weaver.

The dark room is available to all would-be photographers simply by making an appointment with Mr. Rahming. Not only will he be glad to show how to use the equipment, but he will help to improve the composition of pictures submitted. Paper, in 8x10 and 11-4 sheets, and the necessary chemicals mixed in small quantities are for sale at the darkroom.

The total cost of making and matting two pictures for the exhibit will not exceed one dollar.

Latest reports from Rockford bring news that the young ladies are having measles trouble.

DR. F. L. SANTEE APPOINTED TO TEACH CLASSICAL LANGUAGES

1927-29 Mr. Santee was instructor in Latin at Lehigh University. From 1929-33 he was assistant professor of Latin and Greek at Vanderbilt. In 1933-34 Mr. Santee was a premedical student at Vanderbilt University. From 1934 through this year Mr. Santee has been pursuing his medical studies at Johns Hopkins.

Besides his work in the literary classics of Greece and Rome, Mr. Santee has pursued studies of the history of science in the ancient, mediaeval, and modern world. He has also made extensive studies in modern languages.

As a teacher Mr. Santee has brought to the classics and to the modern languages a fresh and vital analysis which has led his students to go on into the subjects on their own. Besides the courses in classical literature Mr. Santee has taught Dante.

His publications are as follows: Homeric Ideas of the Soul—Transactions and Proceedings of the American Philological Association, 1930-31.

The Date of Publication of Horace's Odes I-III—Ibid., 1931-32.

Peculiar Granules in the Cells of the Liver and Adrenal in Infections—Johns Hopkins Hospital Bulletin, 1936.

The Treatment of Schizophrenia—Baltimore, 1938. A translation of the May, 1937, supplement of the Archives of the Swiss Psychiatric Association made in collaboration with Dr. Solomon Katzenelbogen.

Besides courses in Latin and Greek, Mr. Santee will teach next year a course in Dante. This will be a literary course, not for language credit. Its description follows:

Dante, The Divine Comedy:

The major portion of the poem will be read in translation and interpreted in class. Selected passages of especial beauty will be studied in the original. There will be lectures on the literary, historical and philosophical background of the poem and the influence of Dante on later literature. No prerequisites.

LARGE TURNOUT AT INTRAMURAL MEET

Contestants were numerous for the Intramural track meet with over fifty students participating in all.

The division of honors so far is bunched mostly among varsity track men who are eligible to compete, however, the divisions represented in the finals are well divided.

The shot put was led by Mitchell Justice, the Delt one-man Intramural team, who put the shot 35 ft., 1 in. He was followed by Marty Shaw, the Sigma Pi tosser, and Jack Sammon from the Beta team. Sonnenfeld and Steve Chubbuck placed fourth and fifth respectively.

Huggins, from South Leonard, led the high jumpers rolling over the bar at 5 ft. 9½ in. In second place was Jack Cavendar from East Wing. Allan Michaels, John Puffer and Marty Shaw finished in that order.

Bud Mast, the Alpha Delt freshman, cleared the bar at 9 ft. 6 in. to win the pole vault. McCullough of the Deltas and John Puffer from Middle Kenyon and Smith also of the Deltas, placed in the above order.

Mike Simmonette tossed the discus 94 feet to lead the discus men in the qualifying round. Jim Reed, the Psi U trackman, hurled it 91½ feet for second place and was followed by Bernstein who spun it 89.5. Justice was third followed by Gus Sonnenfeld and Bill Allen.

John Puffer broad jumped 18 feet, 11 inches to lead the qualifiers in this event. His closest competition in this event came from the Phi Kap Sigma's Chubbuck brothers. Justice again figured in the standing with a third. Cavendar and Amato finished fourth and fifth respectively.

In the 50-yard dash George Chubbuck, Jack Sammon, Frank Cline, Ken Ray, Rod Boren and Dick Olin, all qualified, Kline turning in the best time of 6 seconds flat.

Rod Boren ran the 100 in 10.9 to lead the qualifiers in this event. Other qualifiers are Clark, the Chubbuck brothers, Amato, Cavendar and Jack Sammon.
