Commencement Plans Near Completion As College Awaits Alumni Invasion

FORTY-EIGHT MEN GRADUATE IN JUNE

Elaborate Plans Made for Gala Welcoming of Alumni

Forty-eight Kenyon seniors will join the ranks of alumni when the bachelor of arts hood is slipped over their shoulders with appropriate Latin remarks on June 19. The scene will be Rosse Hall, and the occasion will be the 111th Commencement of the college. A distinguished American scholar, John S. P. Tatlock, Ph. D., Litt. D., of the University of California, will be the speaker, with his subject "Europe, America, and The Rest of the World." Degrees will also be conferred on graduates of Bexley Hall and, honoris causa, on several visiting notables whose names have not been announced.

Publication of the full program of commencement, which extends from Friday, June 16, through Monday, June 19, reveals that the college will follow the time-honored pattern for such events, established except for the exceptions in the reign of good Bishop Philander. The exceptions are such modern innovations as exhibitions of flying and of horsemanship. For the rest there are such time-tested matters as class reunions; alumni singing in front of Old Kenyon, with the summer moon rising promptly at the hour set by the Alumni Council and joining its fellow alumni in the annual assembling of Kenyon men; fraternity dinners and singing on the Path; and the alumni luncheon in Peirce Hall. Between times trustees and Alumni Council will be meeting to consider the welfare of the college.

BEXLEY REUNION
The initial event of commencement will be the banquet of the Bexley Society and Bexley alumni in Peirce Hall at 6:00 p. m. on Friday, June 16. This reunion is in charge of Frederick Gillett, President of the Bexley Society, the other officers of which are Kenneth H. Gass, Vice-president, Raymond Gayle, Secretary, and Arthur E. Pritchett, Treasurer.

OFFICIAL MEETINGS
The Committee on the Theological School meets in Ascension Hall at 10:00 a. m. on Saturday, followed at eleven by the June meeting of the Board of Trustees. (Continued on Page 6)

President Entertains The Senior Council

Retiring and newly elected members of the Senior Council were guests of President Chalmers at a banquet and formal meeting in Peirce Hall the 19th of May.

President Chalmers introduced Malcolm Doig, retiring President of the Council, who thanked the members for their good work in the past year. Then Dean Hoag, introduced by the President, addressed the group, echoing the sentiments of Mr. Doig. The new members of the Council were welcomed by the President, who also complimented the retiring members for their accomplishments during the school year now drawing to a close.

Dr. John Drake spoke to the members of the Council concerning the duties and responsibilities devolving upon men about to become alumni. Upon the conclusion of the doctor's address, elections to the offices of President and Secretary of the Council were held. Martin Shaw was elected president, and Robert Henry, secretary.

NEW MEMBERS ATTEND PHILO'S FIRST MEETING

Thursday night Dr. Chalmers addressed an enlarged Philomathean as 20 new members were invited to join the library society. The new members include Bakley, Blackmor, Cobby, Coldevay, DeGruff, Graham, Hamister, Hoffman, Hunter, Logan, McCauley, Must, McCleary, McCox, Rose, Svec, Vance, Warman, G. Lytle and Small.

Two other meetings are planned for the near future. On Sunday Dr. Coolidge will address the group and on Wednesday Dr. Black will talk.

A Kenyon Night at Commencement Time

The President's Invitation

To the Alumni:

When you add them up, there have been many changes in Kenyon in the past few years, a condition common to all colleges serious about doing their job better and better. Isolated but important new developments have occurred in the activities of the faculty, the student body, and the maintenance staff. Academic standards have been rising for a considerable period.

We all want improvement, yet improvement is troublesome because it means change, and any change is a worry. Are the old purposes and the underlying spiritual values being preserved? Is the change a real improvement, making education and college life in Gambier better?

I hope you come back to Commencement and see. In college and school circles throughout the country, people have been saying what Kenyon men have thought all along—Kenyon is an interesting and vital center of higher education. We've still many things to do together for Kenyon, all based on up-to-date knowledge of Kenyon and Bexley affairs and of the modern opportunities which lie before us. To do them the College needs the enthusiastic and active support of every alumnus. If you possibly can, don't fail to come to Gambier for Commencement. A welcome awaits you on all parts of the Hill and especially at Cromwell House.

Yours sincerely,
GORDON KEITH CHALMERS

Commencement Speaker

JOHN S. P. TATLOCK

Collegian To Be Alumni Organ

Four Issues Yearly Will Go to All Kenyon

This is the second of the special Alumni issues—four more will follow during the next school year. Due to the widespread approval with which the first issue was received, it is to be continued as a permanent feature. The plan has already proven itself to be a sound one because Kenyon men like to know what is going on in Gambier—not merely through official bulletins, but as seen through the eyes of the student body and faculty, and presented in objective news columns.

The continued support of the Alumni is the deciding factor as to whether or not these improvements can be continued and new ones initiated. If the Alumni could return to the Hill at regular intervals during the year a subscription would not be so vitally important. This, unfortunately, is not the case with the majority of

J. WENDE ELECTED TO HEAD ASSEMBLY

Election Proves to be Closest in Many Years

T. J. Wendt was elected to the presidency of the Student Assembly in what was probably one of the closest elections in the history of the Assembly. The election is notable insofar as one vote might have swung the election some other way. Of the 191 votes cast Wendt received 65, and McMullin and Thomas both received 63.

The election of the vice president was equally as thrilling as the election of the president with Ed Scanlon winning over opponents, Carroll Prosser and Dick Brouse by a very slight majority. Of the 191 votes cast Scanlon received 66, Prosser 65 and Brouse 62. The election of the secretary was by a wide majority. Art Kohler received 87 of the 191 votes, Bob Henry 61, and George DeVoe 43.

Mr. Wendt is the vice president of the Alpha Deltas. He is a prominent member of the football and track teams, and was sophomore president of the Class of '40.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ALUMNI REORGANIZE

Revival of the long-dormant Alumni Association of Southern California has recently been accomplished through the efforts of the Rev. W. J. Barrett, '99, and the Rev. Dr. George Davidson, '02. Reorganization was achieved at a meeting on May 4 in Los Angeles, at which the following officers were elected: President, the Rev. Dr. George Davidson, '02, St. John's Church, Los Angeles; treasurer, Robert E. Baxter, '29, 1721 Sanborn Avenue, Los Angeles; secretary, the Rev. W. J. Barrett, '99, 418 West 33rd Street, Los Angeles.

The next meeting will be held on May 24 at the University Club in Los Angeles. A guest speaker will address the association.

Ed. Good, '84 Spans Nation To Unite Class

Contacts Florida Classmate To Win Peirce Cup

Edward Good '84 known where ever he goes as a Kenyon man, has gone to no end of trouble to bring his class, the class of '84 back to the "hill" for his class reunion, at commencement time. Mr. Good traveled all the way from his home in Akron to Tallahassee, Florida to contact his classmate G. E. Benedict whom he hadn't seen in 40 years. Mr. Benedict will as a result of Mr. Good's interest and determination to win the Peirce Cup awarded to the class having the largest attendance at commencement, return to Gambier for this graduation. Mr. Good has not only attended all of the commencements, but he returns to the "Hill" when ever he can get a ride.

hassee, Florida to contact his classmate G. E. Benedict whom he hadn't seen in 40 years. Mr. Benedict will as a result of Mr. Good's interest and determination to win the Peirce Cup awarded to the class having the largest attendance at commencement, return to Gambier for this graduation. Mr. Good has not only attended all of the commencements, but he returns to the "Hill" when ever he can get a ride.

Ed. Good is one of the real "old timers" in the Akron Alumni Association. Well known as a former trustee of the college, he is one of the most respected and beloved men in that city.

Although Mr. Good is not as young as he used to be, he still looks for capable men who will carry on the Kenyon tradition. The number of Kenyon men whom Mr. Good has aided in one way or another is known only to himself. Ever loyal to Kenyon, Mr. Good thinks that the idea of a class reunion is one of the best ways of promoting the welfare of the college. He has always done more than his share to make them successes.

Members of the Alumni association of Cincinnati will be addressed by President Chalmers on June 1 at a dinner to be held at the Miami Boat club.

Present officers of the association are: Patterson Pogue, 18, president; William H. Kite, Jr., '09, vice-president; and Joseph W. Scherr, Jr., '29, secretary.

Classes Ending In 4 and 9 Expect Large Aggregation

Class of 1914 Shows Success In Reunion Plans

Houston, Bowman Wade Through Directories To Locate Members

When it comes to rounding up classmates for reunions, alumni can take a tip from the Class of '14 on how to go about it. And if organization, industry and systematic appeal mean anything at all, the twenty-fifth reunion of '14 should be one of the most successful on Gambier Hill in many years.

There are records, of course, that no class can hope to shatter, or even duplicate—in 1910, for example, the Class of '80 conducted its thirtieth reunion with EVERY MAN BACK ON THE HILL FOR COMMENCEMENT. In recent years, '16 made an enviable showing at its twentieth reunion by getting 50 of the original 57 men back.

But two members of '14 set out in January to round up all living members of their class, if they could locate them. They waded through telephone directories from all parts of the country, and finally tracked down all but three. Since '14 left the Hill on the eve of the World War, which made all address lists obsolete, a number of the class had been listed as "missing" on the alumni roster.

Lehrer Elected Head of Pre-Med; LeFevre Speaks

Richard Lehrer was elected president of the Pre-Medical Society to succeed Edwin Girish at a special meeting on May 23. Other officers are Edward Scanlon, vice president and Robert Brown, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the Pre-Med. Society observed the closing of the school year with a banquet in the banquet room of Peirce Hall Thursday, May 18. Guests of honor were the instructors of the sciences at Kenyon and Dr. John C. Drake of Mt. Vernon.

Dr. LeFevre, Neurological Surgeon of Columbus, Ohio, and one of the outstanding brain surgeons of the country, discussed the Development of Neurological Surgery. In treating his subject, Dr. LeFevre emphasized the importance of the work of Cushing, who is recognized as the founder of brain surgery. Dr. Cushing is at present a resident of Cleveland.

Chairman Mell Predicts Brilliant Class Night Display

If your class year ends with the numeral 4 or 9 most of your classmates will be on the Hill this commencement, according to Don C. Mell, '21, who is in charge of class reunions and the Class Night celebration scheduled for the evening of June 18. Mell reports that reunions are in preparation for all classes bearing these lucky numbers, as 1839, 1854, 1899, 1924, etc.; that energetic class secretaries have already assured the success of these reunions; and that the arrangements for Class Night will make it a real and satisfactory Kenyon gathering.

The commencement program sets apart Sunday evening for the class reunion. Class dinners are scheduled for six o'clock, following the baccalaureate sermon and the President's reception, and at nine o'clock the reuniting classes will assemble in front of Old Kenyon for a general program and celebration.

"Arrangements can be made," states Chairman Mell, "for private dining rooms for the class dinners; but it has been found very satisfactory to have the various classes occupy tables in the Great Hall at the Commons, and this plan will be rather generally followed."

The Class Night celebration in front of Old Kenyon will follow the traditional pattern, but it will not be hackneyed. As in years past, the windows of the old building will be illuminated with transparencies bearing the insignia of the fraternities and the literary societies. The quadrangle will be illuminated with strings of lanterns, with ample seating arrangements for the commencement audience. The classes themselves will be the performers.

"There will be few speeches and many songs," Mell declares. "Every class holding a reunion will at least sing its class song. In addition many individual performances are in preparation which are guaranteed to please. There are a lot of gifted singers and comedians in these classes, and they are preparing their best stuff for the occasion. Old favorites will be repeated; new favorites will be made."

Since the rooms at the Alumni House and the Commons will be filled early by commencement visitors, members of the reunion classes are advised to make room reservations with Guy H. Buttolph, '92, of Gambier.

Alumni planning to attend commencement should apply for reservation of rooms to Guy H. Buttolph, '92, of Gambier.

Kenyon Alumni Everywhere

The One Hundred and Eleventh Commencement of Kenyon College will take place from Saturday, June 17th, through Monday, June 19th. Commencement is the Alumni season. The time to meet your classmates and renew old friendships. Need more be said.

In behalf of the Alumni Council we extend to each Alumnus and Matriculate a cordial invitation to return to the Hill at this season and participate in the festivities. As soon as you arrive in old Gambier, please go at once to Alumni Headquarters in Peirce Hall for registration. Someone will be on hand there at all times to answer questions and to help make your stay on the Hill enjoyable. After registering, retire to the Middle Path, things will happen and you can take them in stride.

Class-reunion Night is unique in itself and by now is nationally known. This will be held, as usual, in front of Old Kenyon on Sunday night, June 18th. This setting under the stars, with the transparencies in the windows, is well worth the trip alone. The program of the evening, under the able leadership of Class-Reunions Chairman Don Mell, promises to be mighty interesting and entertaining.

Immediately following Commencement Exercises on Monday, June 19th, the Annual Meeting of the Alumni Association will be held in Rosse Hall. We would appreciate your presence at this meeting and assure us of your interest in Kenyon Alumni activities.

And so, we say, give yourself the pleasure of another Kenyon Commencement and give us the pleasure of welcoming you again.

Kenyon men are reminded numberless times daily of the vital part which Kenyon alumni play in everyday life on the "Hill" in a very concrete and material sense. Peirce Hall, the swimming pool, and the alumni house are but a few of the more recent gifts from loyal alumni which have made the Kenyon campus one of the most beautiful in the nation. Though many of the alumni haven't been back to the "Hill" for years they will feel right at home.

Singing down the path, the cane rush, and the pajama parade, to mention a few, are still observed with all of the old vigor and rivalry. It is true that there are many new faces on the "Hill" now, but you ought to get to know the new men better. They are just as grand a bunch as those "old timers" Pete Reeves, Tite West, and all the rest of those old pros of yours that you have been wanting to see for so long. Though the campus has changed for the better in the last few years, the old spirit which you alumni knew so well still prevails. Kenyon is proud that she has kept abreast with the times, and you are proud of her too. But she can never sever those ties to her glorious past. Her old leadership, sportsmanship, good humored pranks, and mannish zest for life are just as much alive as when you graduated.

But don't take our word for it. Come down and see for your self. Those of us who are the Kenyon men of today want to know you, and those of us who know you are anxious to see you again. Drop those classmates of yours a line. Come down en masse and make this commencement the biggest and best commencement since your commencement. Show the boys how to do this commencement up right. We will be looking for you!

WHY YES, PANGO

It is difficult to think clearly when one is sleepy; the reactions are slow, so I walk into the room, throw my hat in the waste-basket, and sit down in my chair before I notice the stack of books piled up in the middle of the room, and on the books sits little Pango sewing buttons onto his shirt. I look the situation over carefully before commenting. Then I say vaguely: You've learned a lot traveling all over the world, Pango. Tell me, what's the most important thing?

People, says Pango sticking his finger instead of his shirt. People, I say. Yes, repeats Pango. People. Well, I say brightening to the subject matter in a way that would make any of my professors proud of me if I did the same in class, what about science, religion, laws, justice, the higher life. Those, says Pango casually, are mere creations of people. How about land, and food, and raw materials, I ask. How about them, answers Pango, there's plenty of land, plenty of food, plenty of raw materials. If there weren't, there wouldn't be any people.

And there won't be any people, I comment, if they keep fighting for them. Ha, says Pango cryptically, people have been killing each other for land and food since the beginning, and there are certainly a lot of people left.

But it's stupid for it to go on and on, I say in self defense. Yep, admits Pango, but it's not the land that's stupid, it's the people. I didn't mean the land, I laugh, I laugh. No, says Pango with a rising inflection. Conversation stops at that point while I try to think of something to say. Pango finished sewing buttons on his shirt, and he puts it on.

Why do we have nations, I ask. Why do we have families, Pango asks. Why don't we have one big nation, I ask. Because we've got families, says Pango. That doesn't make sense, I say. That's right, says Pango, but that's the way it is. Why I ask. Well, says Pango, how would you like to have the Butler family come over to your house and tell you what to do. No good, I answer. Well, continues, how would you like to go over to the Butler house and tell them what to do. You know Mary Jane Butler, don't you. Well, I consider for a moment, that's mightn't be so bad. Sure I know Mary Jane. Well, says Pango, that's the way it is. Nobody wants to be ruled by someone else, but they wouldn't mind ruling someone else. That's why we don't have one large nation.

Well, I say, wouldn't it be fine if somebody could unite all the European states into one nation, and then there wouldn't be any more fighting. After a hundred or more years of being under the same rule, says Pango, if the rule is good for all of them, it might be a possibility. Napoleon tried it, you remember. Yes, I say, if he could have crossed the English channel when he wanted to, and had not bothered with Russia, he might have done it.

That's right, says Pango. Well, I say remembering what we started to talk about, what about people being the most important thing. Oh, says Pango, if there weren't any people, we wouldn't have any families, or nations, or depressions, or wars. And that's the way the conversation finally ends.

Division Make Commencement Plans

With the Commencement Season almost here the different divisions on the hill through their presidents wish to express to their Alumni the welcome-back at the most important time of the college year. Tentative plans are also, printed below.

Delta Kappa Epsilon has planned such activities as the Initiation Banquet in the bull's eye on Saturday night and the annual meeting of the Lambda Alumni Association on Sunday. Carroll Prosser, Lambda president, in way of welcome said, "Lambda of Delta Kappa Epsilon wishes to invite all of her Alumni back to the hill to help celebrate the One Hundred and Eleventh Commencement Week-end to be held June 17, 18, and 19. Initiation is planned for Saturday afternoon, with the annual banquet following and a smoker in the evening. We sincerely hope that you will return and join with us in making this week-end a memorable success."

John Cavender speaking for Alpha Delta Phi said, "The Kenyon Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi wishes to welcome all of her Alumni back to the One Hundred and Eleventh Commencement exercises of the college. We have many things planned for the week-end that we want our Alumni to enjoy with us. This will be a week-end to be remembered for any Alpha Delt that returns this year."

Psi Upsilon will hold initiation of new men on the afternoon of June 17, at the lodge immediately after which the Initiation Banquet will be held. The annual meeting of the Iota Alumni Association will be held on Sunday morning. The Psi Upsilon president, Robert O. Cless, addresses this remark to the Alumni, "On behalf of the chapter, I would like to invite all Alumni to return to the hill for Commencement Week-end and take part in the activities of both the college and the fraternity."

Richard Brouse extends the Beta welcome to returning Alumni in this statement, "Beta Alpha of Beta Theta Pi invites and heartily welcomes back all of its Alumni for the One Hundred and Eleventh Week-end. You have already received the "Bulletin" and the Chapter's announcement of the initiation and banquet ceremonies. Besides these, which are to be held at six P. M. Saturday, June 17, there also will be a brief but important business meeting that afternoon at 4:30 P. M. in the South Leonard Parlor."

Chi Chapter of Delta Tau Delta has "Chi Copy" ready for publication and it is soon to be sent to the Alumni to gether with the invitations to attend the Commencement ceremonies for 1939. James Herl invites the Chi Alumni back to the initiation and banquet with this message, "Chi Chapter of Delta Tau Delta Sincerely urges all of its Alumni to return to the hill on Commencement Week-end. The members of the active chapter have many merits and possibilities which they would like to strut before you."

Sigma Pi with an initiation, banquet, and tea for the ladies on Sunday afternoon Welcome their Alumni back through their president, Martin Shaw, "We of Lambda of Sigma Pi are looking forward to seeing all of our Alumni this Commencement. The chapter is progressing rapidly and we urge your support. Sigma Pi is looking forward to a big year in '39-'40 so if all of our Alumni are here this Commencement, we will consider our year launched with a "bang."

President John A. Silver of Phi Kappa Sigma says, "On behalf of Theta Chapter of Phi Kappa Sigma, I cordially invite all Alumni of Phi Kappa Sigma to be our guests at the One Hundred and Eleventh Commencement. We are having initiation at 5:00 P. M. June 17, and the banquet at the Alcove at 7:30."

Arvid Laurila, head of Alpha Pi Tau, in welcoming Alumni states, "Alpha Pi Tau extends its heartiest greeting to the Alumni. We are looking forward to a strong return to climax a very successful year."

To the Alumni of Middle Kenyon, George Kopf Jr. addresses the following remarks.

May I take this opportunity to welcome you back to your Division and College during Commencement. It is at this time that the beauty of the Kenyon spirit synchronizes with the beauty of a Gambier spring into a result that is most fertile for the renewal of old friendships and the making of new friends.

Middle Kenyon, at the present time, is publishing an Alumni newspaper entitled The Middle Kenyon. This paper will reach the M. K. Alumni before Commencement. It contains articles by W. P. Reeves, Henry West, and President Chalmers asking the Alumni of this division to return for Commencement. If enough Alumni do return to warrant it, there will be a buffet supper on the June 17 for them.

Poland still looks like the best bet for the next outbreak of hostilities. Whether they will be soon or not is a question of some doubt. Relations with Danzig are already considerably strained by Nazi demands and Polish resistance. Rumor has it that Germany is setting about building up a pro-Nazi population in the Free City by infiltration of citizens from the Reich and by propaganda. There are also the consistent reports from supposedly informed sources in Washington that the President and the State Department feel it is a fifty-fifty bet for war before August. But Germany probably will not go to war, or risk going to war (Nazis are sure that the encirclement nations will NOT fight for Danzig) before the Harvest season, since the Reich is so much in need for food. And that means it will be September at least before active hostilities will begin. Anybody's guess is still pretty good.

Settlement of the difficulties of the Mexican Government and the British and US oil companies may be near at last. When Cardenas took over the companies' properties last year, he insisted that it was simply to secure his government against corporations who were becoming more powerful than the law, and asserted that, several of the big oil combines had been flagrant in their violations of Mexican Supreme Court rulings. Now, after over a year, the government has found how serious a task it was undertaking; the oil companies have retaliated by an embargo on Mexican products and Mexican raw materials more effective than any the League of Nations was ever able to enforce. The only customers for Mexican oil today are Germany and Italy, who, beside not paying too well, would be unable to purchase any oil should war be declared in Europe. The oil companies have found that the Mexican government was able to take much more or a beating than they had expected, and is still going strong. Both sides are therefore finally amenable to agreement, which will probably be reached at an early date.

Reports from India indicate that busy Nazis are trying their best to turn the strong anti-British feeling of the 3 plus million natives into an equally strong pro-Nazi feeling. In case they are successful, and in case war does come, those natives might turn into quite a problem.

Latest reports show pretty conclusively that Germany has stepped up her production of war planes to something like 60 per day! France is in a miserable mess,

SOUTH LEONARD ATTENDS STATE FRATERNITY SING

The Kenyon Chapter of Beta Theta Pi, winners of the Intramural Singing Cup, went to Columbus Saturday evening, May 20, to compete in the first annual Fraternity Singing Contest of Ohio Colleges. Nine Colleges were represented in Ohio State University's beautiful Natatorium in Columbus. The first half of the program was broadcasted over station WLOS from 8:30 to 9:00 o'clock. A sorority intramural meet and a diving exhibition were also on the program. A special compliment was paid the Kenyon Representatives when the Betas from Case College in Cleveland chose as one of their songs the Beta Alpha Marching Song, which was written by Professor Cahall.

The Beta Theta Pi Chapter representing Ohio University at Athens, Ohio was awarded first prize which consisted of a large cup and one hundred dollars.

Library Appeal

Answered by Numerous Gifts

Early this year the Trustee's Committee on the Library made an appeal for gifts to the College Library. The appeal, in the form of a letter addressed to all alumni and other friends of the College, was unusual in that it requested neither money nor newly purchased books, though such, of course, were not to be declined. It simply asked for the books already in the possession of the alumni or friends which were no longer useful to the owners.

Since the mailing of the request 263 books of various kinds have been received by the librarian, ranging from the novels of George Eliot to the handsomely bound volumes of the early issues of the Quarterly Review. These books are the gifts of George W. N. Riddle, New York; Walter T. Collins, New York; Harry J. Fisher, Greenwich, Conn.; Thomas A. Wilson, Gambier; Mrs. Charles E. Myers, Toledo; Mrs. Allen B. West, Madison, Wisc.; P. T. Hummel, Cleveland; Miss Clare Benedict, Basle, Switzerland; George L. Brain, Springfield.

FLYING CLUB TO JOURNEY TO MICHIGAN TO COMPETE IN MID-WEST AIR MEET

Legg, Sonenfield, Shubin and Hoffman to Fly To Pontiac next Friday

The members of the Kenyon College Flying Club will journey next week end to Pontiac, Michigan, where they will take part in the University of Detroit's Mid-West Air meet.

At the meet schools from all over the middle west are expected to participate in the standard four events of college flying. Seven trophies as well as several cash prizes are being offered.

Only four of the Kenyon soloists, Robert Legg, Bob Sonenfield, Murray Shubin, and Hallock Hoffman, will be eligible to compete in the meet. These four, and Instructor Don Gretzer will fly to Pontiac late Friday afternoon. Friday and Saturday night they will have accommodations in the Hotel Pontiac. A party has been planned for Friday evening, and a banquet for Saturday night, at which prizes and trophies will be awarded.

The Kenyon College Flying Club has had only one meet so far this season, the Kenyon Mid-West meet, which ended with Kenyon and the University of Michigan tied 21-21. The University of Detroit meet will be the only other meet that Kenyon will attend this year except, of course, the National Meet, to be held here late in June.

Kenyon To Play Hosts To Airmen During the Inter-Collegiate Meet

Expect from Forty to Sixty Contestants and Guests

Kenyon will this June be the site of a contest to determine a new champion of the college flying world, for the National Air Meet of the National Intercollegiate Flying Clubs is to be held this year at Kenyon. Kenyon was chosen for the location of the meet at the national conference of the NIFC in Washington early this spring.

Scheduled for the 27th and 28th of June, the meet will probably find representatives from clubs all over the country congregating here at Kenyon. Contestants are to be the guests of the college for the duration of the meet, and will be housed in one of the dormitories.

The competition will consist of the standard four events of college flying—bomb dropping, paper starting, 360 degree spot landing, and free approach to a bull's eye landing. A navigation contest has also been arranged, but will not count toward the winning of the National championship.

Scoring is on a point basis, with 5 points for first place, 3 for second place, 2 for third, and 1 for fourth. The outstanding trophy is of course the famous National Cup, which goes to the club which gains the most points. There will also be prizes for the clubs winning first place in each event, and a cup for the high point man of the meet.

Last year Kenyon and Stanford tied for the National Cup, and each were allowed to keep it for six months. Kenyon's chances at a first this year are said to be considerably less than ever before, since five of the club's top-notch pilots graduated last June. So far this year the club has taken part in only one meet, the Kenyon Annual Mid-West Meet; the Kenyon fliers tied with Michigan for first. This week-end the club goes to the University of Detroit Meet in Pontiac, where results will probably cast some light on the possibility of a "first" in June.

A tentative schedule for the National Meet shows that registration will begin on Monday afternoon, the 26th of June. Actual flying will be done on Tuesday and Wednesday. A steak fry and beer party at the air port Barbecue is planned for Tuesday night; Wednesday evening, after the close of the contests, a banquet will be given in the private dining room of Peirce Hall Commons. There trophies will be awarded, and the three days brought to a fitting climax.

In addition to the 40 to 60 contestants, several visitors from the east and the middle west are expected. The college airport will be crowded with airplanes of many kinds, room having already been made to accommodate at least thirty. The hangars have been newly painted, and the sod of the port recently mowed and rolled in preparation for the meet. It can be safely stated that the National Meet should prove the most important event in the successful history of Kenyon's successful Flying Club.

Polo Semi-Finals Played

The first play-offs of the intramural polo games were held last week, with the finals to be played sometime this week. The West Wing team of John Lumbert and Dick Eckley defeated both the Middle Kenyon team of Bob Purves and Bill Donley and the North Leonard-Hanna team of John Ellis and Fritz Watson.

Backstops

The jello diet must have really put springs in the legs of Olin and Co. on Tuesday. Those tracksters showed that they knew how to win and boy oh boy how that victory bell clanged. It must have been music to Rudy's ears; after all he is largely responsible for the success of the team. We wouldn't like to take any credit away from Olin though, he certainly had what it takes. A little of that kind of running would do a lot of good Denison on Saturday.

Last week end Kenyon College (that small school where they don't go in for athletics) won one Ohio Conference Championship runner up in another and beat Denison of the mighty big six in baseball. There must be several schools who would like to "deemphasize" that way—Lots of bouquets to the golfers who missed the title by a rather small margin.

Word has reached us from Jeep McNeill that he is considering staying abroad till the Nationals at Forrest Hills. This would mean that his United States ranking would be based entirely on Wimbledon and Forrest Hills. If he did well in these two tourneys he could receive a good ranking if not he might not be ranked at all because of insufficient data.

The fliers will attempt to snag some more trophies at Detroit's meet this week end—If Ellwood Cooke turns out to be a good doubles player Kenyon men can claim some of the glory for the hill; those who should know say that his volleying improved a hundred per cent. while he was here.—Bully Allback took Janet Schock again—took her out one night in Toledo too last week. Von Cramm made it four to one over McNeill last week.

INTRAMURAL RIDING PROVES CLOSE RACE

The results of the intramural riding competition were unbelievably close. Although a system of graded scores with 300 as perfect was used to avoid the possibility of a tie, the Middle Leonard team defeated that of Middle Kenyon, last year's winner, by so close a margin that the minutest details in correct horsemanship had to be considered.

Judging the competition were Mrs. Gordon K. Chalmers, Dr. Ray Ashford, and Captain Frederick Eberle. The winning team was made up of Bill Skinner, Bob Browning, Don Krone, and Bill Cuthbert. The members of the Middle Kenyon team were Bob Purves, Tom Navin, Frank Winters, and Walter Volkmar. Also entered were teams from South Leonard, Middle Hanna, North Hanna, and South Hanna, placing in that order.

GOLF SQUAD CAPTURES SECOND POST AGAIN IN OHIO CONFERENCE AT TOLEDO

Watts leads Lords by taking Third Position Next Stop is Ohio Inter-Collegiates

The Kenyon Golf squad knocked the dirty little pill around the Heather Downs Country Club at Toledo last Friday and Saturday to roll in second in the Ohio Conference Championship Matches.

This makes it two years in a row that the Lords have garnered the second post. But they were topped by a really topping team this year which hailed from Toledo University. Of course, the Toledo boys had the advantage of playing on their home course, but they are, without a doubt, deserving of the trophy. They are truly a fine, well-balanced squad.

Toledo, Kenyon, and Denison placed one, two, three in that order. Toledo led away out in front with a 314. Kenyon followed eleven points behind with a total of 325, trailed closely by a team out of Granville which shot 327.

WATTS PLACES THIRD

Sid Watts, smooth number two man out of the Sophomore class, turned in a 77 and a 75 to take third place in the individuals. Cawley of Marietta snatched first with a beautiful 74 and 69. Marshall Carlson of the home of Toledo shot 75 and 73 to slide in between Cawley and Watts.

The other individual scores for the Lords were: Clements 82 and 77, tied for seventh; Albach 80 and 82, tied for ninth; Lindberg 86 and 89.

Toledo University entertained the six competing teams of the Conference with an enjoyable banquet Saturday evening followed by the attendance to a night baseball game.

OHIO INTER-COLLEGIATES

NEXT

The men will invade the Ohio Inter-Collegiate Matches at Columbus today. They will come up against the toughest competition in the state at the Capital. The Lords refuse to make any prediction of the outcome of the matches, but place or not, it will be chalked up as experience.

HOFFMAN AND LEGG ATTEND MICHIGAN AIR-WEEK CELEBRATION

Last week-end Bob Legg and Hallock Hoffman, as representatives of the Kenyon College Flying Club, attended an Air-Week celebration at the University of Michigan.

First draft plans indicated that several of the Kenyon pilots would fly to Ann Arbor, but bad weather and lack of airplanes changed those plans, and finally only the two went.

While the guests of the University of Michigan's Flying Club, the pair saw an afternoon of demonstrations of aircraft by various manufacturers, and were present at the University's noted Institute of Aeronautical Sciences' annual banquet. Guest of honor of the banquet and principle speaker of the evening was Mr. Hincley, Chairman of the CAA; also at the speaker's table were Mr. Cyril Thompson, Assistant to the President of United Air Lines; the famous inventor, and designer of the Ford Transport plane, Bill Stout; Floyd Evans, head of the State department of Aeronautics of Michigan; and several others. The Chairman was Duncan Moore, commentator on station WJR, of Detroit.

LEWIS AND REEDER'S COMBINE SWEEP PURPLE NETTERS TO CONFERENCE TITLE

Tennis Squad Takes Third Championship In Row

Led by Morey Lewis and Tex Reeder the Kenyon Tennis team swept to its third straight conference title here Friday and Saturday, May 19 and 20.

Both of the Kenyon men experienced little trouble in disposing of their opponents as they advanced through the tournament.

Lewis, National Intercollegiate runner up last year and favorite to capture the crown this year, seemed hypo active as he defeated his opponents in easy fashion. Reeder experienced little more finals although he did drop the first set to Cecil Oberlin in the semi-finals. Intermittent thunder showers marred the play on Saturday, but the Har-Tru courts dried quickly after each shower and the matches were completed on schedule.

The most interesting match of the tournament was the final match between Lewis and Reeder. Seldom has Tex extended himself to such an extent as he did in attempting to beat his teammate. Reeder's blistering service and forehand was the feature of the beginning of the first set. But Reeder tired under the superior placements of Morey Lewis. Lewis repeatedly passed Reeder at the net with superb backhand placements, and literally smashed Reeder from the court with sizzling drives. Continuing this sort of play Lewis went on to win the Championship 6-4, 6-0 when they decided to play only two out of three sets instead of the customary three out of five.

Entering the doubles play almost immediately after completing the singles Reeder and Lewis displayed a brilliant net game to win in easy fashion from Cecil and Blanshard of Oberlin in straight sets 6-2, 6-0, 6-4. The Kenyon stars showed signs of tiring, from playing four straight sets without rest, near the close of the final set. Most of the colleges in the Ohio Conference sent Representative squads to Gambier to compete for the championship. Those schools were Kenyon, Oberlin, Wittenberg, Wooster, Bowling Green, Denison, Otterbein and Kent State. The team scoring for the meet was as follows: Kenyon 26; Oberlin 10; Wittenberg 7; Wooster 4; and Bowling Green 1. Kent State, Otterbein, and Denison failed to score.

Batmen Suppress Denison Advance May Smacks Four

Griffin Holds Big Red To Nine Hits Score 4-0

Big Bill Griffin held Denison to nine hits while his teammates fattened their averages with fifteen hits to give Kenyon their third straight ball game 1-4. The Big Red used three fingers against the merciless Lords with Griffin holding up the best but even he tired in the late stages of the game.

Catcher Charlie May continued his heavy work at the plate when he banged out four hits in five trips to the plate. He was followed closely by Ioanes who accounted for three solid smashes in four trips to the box. Mac Baker also nailed three hits and Prosser and Curtiss accounted for a pair a piece.

The best play of the game was a deep fly to left fielder Ioanes who headed the ball home and in a close play at home May nailed the runner ending a rally. Ioanes in throwing the ball to May made one of the best plays seen all year for Kenyon.

Griffin in winning his annual game struck out fifteen and allowed but nine hits for four runs which is pitching well enough behind eleven runs in any league.

CAPITAL TRIUMPHS ON KENYON ERROR

Fine Pitching of Ioanes Boggled by Fumbles

Capital University bested Kenyon in one of the finest pitching duals ever witnessed on Benson Field 2-0. It was Helmich of Capital and Ioanes of Kenyon in a close game with few hits and tight play.

Ioanes was pitching superb ball in the third when a brace of errors by Eurich and Curtiss let home two runs on no hits. Kenyon just never could get those runs back although several hard smashes were belted off Helmich in the fast nine inning dual.

McCullough of Kenyon smashed out a home run ball if their ever was one but in slowing down at third he was thrown out at home. He had his first two hits since the last Wittenberg game in this fracas. May and Pitcher Ioanes continued their hitting each getting to Helmich's slants for a pair of base knocks a piece.

Stock of Capital had no trouble with Ioanes hitting him safely twice while Lindner, Rawn, and Swartz were held to singles by Ioanes for a total of five hits. Ioanes struck out eleven while Helmich waved out fourteen batters allowed Kenyon seven hits. Mac Baker came far and wide for his six put outs and played half of left field the first part of the afternoon. Griffin replaced Rudge in left in the seventh as a pinch batter and after socking two fouls long and hard he struck out to end a seventh inning rally.

Kenyon ends their season at Wooster on Friday when they meet the strong Wooster Scots in the Scott stadium at Wooster. A large Kenyon following is expected to attend. Coach Imel is planning to start Ioanes and May as a battery and is not sure whether Griffin will replace Rudge in left field or if Less will be at third in place of Eurich. Frank "the Flee" Eurich got off to a swell start this season but the last game or two has tightened up and Imel is deciding if he needs some rest.

Members of Mt. Vernon Camera Club to Act As Judges

The camera club is making extensive preparations for a contest tentatively scheduled for around June 6th. The prizes, contributed by Mr. R. A. Weaver, will consist of five prizes of $5.00 each, and will be awarded to the five best pictures regardless of types.

Mr. Rahming explained this novel method of award by saying "If there are a number of portraits and all of them are poor, there won't be any portrait award."

Although he may act as a judge, Mr. Rahming said he was going to get judges from the Mt. Vernon Camera Club, where much fine work has been done recently. He hoped also to have Mr. Timmons, a very well known photographer from Coshocton, come to Gambier to judge some of the work.

The pictures will be hung in Philo hall some time next week. The prize money will be considered as purchase money and the winner will be expected to give his picture to the college for a new collection.

"If anyone thinks he has a $15.00 picture he had better let us know beforehand" said Mr. Rahming.

The contest is open to anyone in the college and the pictures may be on any subject and photographer may choose.

There will be a 50c charge however for all non-members of the Camera Club for the use of the dark room facilities.

TRACKMEN ANNEX INITIAL VICTORY AS OLIN HAS FIELD DAY

Kenyon Nabbs 8 Firsts; Final Score 88-48

Nabbing eight out of fifteen first places, Rudy Kutler's trackmen won the seasons first victory at Otterbein on Tuesday. With Dick Olin leading the way with an amazing total of thirty one points the boys from Westerville were run down on their own cinders. The score was 88-48.

Olin, who has been taking several places in every meet this year out did himself to get no less than five firsts and two seconds. His thirty one points pushed his season total to eighty eight and broke two records of six year's standing. The old record of twenty seven points in one meet and eighty three points per season, set by Steve Clark in 1933, was badly splintered by Olin's Frank Merriwell. To make sure of a good thing Olin set a field record in the low hurdles when he negotiated the timber tops in 26.6 seconds.

While Olin was having his own field day his mates were doing more than all right. In no event was Kenyon completely out classed while three Lords finished the two-twenty before the best Otterbein entry. Michels was second big scorer with eleven points, but all the Lords managed to fatten their point scores.

Though this meet concludes the regular schedule, Rudy Kutler has picked a team to compete at Granville on Saturday for the Championship of the Ohio Conference. The Otterbein victory is encouraging and the meet at Denison should prove to be a good test for those chosen. Included in the chosen few are Olin who is entered in four events, Michels, Puffer Mast and Ray in two events each, Brown in one, and Stevens and Wende to complete the relay team.

On Tuesday evening Coach Rudy Kutler announced that the following men will receive letters in track:

Brown, Ferris, Michels, Mast, McCullough, Olin, Ray, Wende, Puffer, Cavender, Shaw.

At the same time it was announced that Puffer has been chosen to lead the track team next year.

The Otterbein summaries:
Pole Vault—won by Olin, (K); second, Covender, (K); third, Neff, (O). Time 10'

High jump—won by Learish, (O); second, Augspurger, (O); third, T. Puffer, (K). Time 5'9 3/4"

Relay won by (K), Stevens, Ray, Wende, Mast. K-71; O-37.

S. AND M. LEONARD LEAD INTRAMURAL BASEBALL

With the intramural schedule nearing completion there is plenty of athletic endeavor on all fronts this week. The baseball picture is still a bit hazy because of several postponed games but to all intents and purposes South and Middle Leonard are out in front. Neither has been defeated to date, and each has one important game to play before they meet.

The intramural golf and tennis get under way this week and South Leonard and North Leonard are favored respectively. Tennis will consist of both singles and doubles this year.

Polo was to have been finished on Thursday, and, except for the track and the ping-pong and badminton which have been hanging fire the intramural program is almost complete. South Leonard still has a big lead on the cup, and a victory in the baseball would make it awfully tough to overhaul them.

the Alumni. The next best thing is, of course, a subscription to the "Collegian," in which medium Alumni can find a full report of what Kenyon men are doing and thinking.

It is the hope of the Collegian staff and the Alumni Council that those of the Alumni who are not receiving the Collegian regularly will become subscribers. To encourage this, the Commencement issue will be sent free to all Alumni who have sent in their subscriptions before June 15. The payment of two dollars ($2.00) mailed to the Business Manager, Kenyon Collegian, Gambier, Ohio will insure prompt delivery of the first issues in the Fall.

Compiling a mailing list of their classmates, the two '14 organizers Roger A. Houston and David W. Bowman, both of Cincinnati, sent out a circular letter headed by the call that used to herald a session of the "S. C. I." In the letter were little references to things done by, or done to, each member of the class when he was on the Hill. A second circular, with a map showing where each member of the class was located, followed six weeks later, and enclosed post-cards for reservations at the class dinner, June 18 in the Commons private dining room. One of the letters closed with the warning that "you'll feel better talking athletics with younger men than staying home talking rheumatism with older men."

The map in the second circular, accompanied by the address list of the class, was explained by the suggestion that '14 men living in the same sections might get together and arrange to make the trip to the Hill in bunches. This was followed by a personal letter to each man by one of the classmates in his own division.

Responses to this campaign have been so numerous and so enthusiastic that every indication points to a remarkable turnout at the twenty-fifth reunion of '14. Several men who have not visited Gambier since 1911 or 1912 have signified their intention of returning.

48 To Graduate

The luncheon and meeting of the Alumni Council will be held in Peirce Hall at one o'clock on Sunday, and the annual meeting of the General Alumni Association immediately after the commencement exercises in Rosse Hall on Monday.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Following an afternoon of swimming, riding, flying, and tennis, the President's reception will be held on Saturday from five to seven at Cromwell House. The rest of the evening is dedicated to fraternity and non-fraternity banquets and singing. Class reunions and the Class Night celebration, which are described fully in another column, will occupy Sunday evening from six o'clock on. A commencement dance on Monday night will end the commencement.

ACADEMIC EVENTS

The academic business of commencement will follow the traditional pattern. President Chalmers will preach the Baccalaureate Sermon at five o'clock on Sunday, in the Church of the Holy Spirit. On Sunday morning at 7:30 the Class of 1939 will hold corporate communion in the chapel. The academic assembly will begin with morning prayer at 9:30, after which the annual procession to Rosse Hall will be made for the awarding of degrees.
