Fire-clouding is present - absent - post-deposition. If present, where:

Piece is not - slightly - moderately - very - extremely - eroded.

Interior shows front-back joint/seam - finger impressions - fingernail marks - clay layers - webbed or "wet" look from fingers - striations - gouges - clay scraps - clay curls - smoothing - wiping - other.

Slip: yes - no. If yes, where:

Paint: yes - no. If yes, where:

Decoration: little nice for a "G" piece. This is the upper edge of a head dress. The central element is a rectangular, projecting flange, undecorated. It continues down over the head, swelling forward. Both flanking elements are broken. The right one is rounded, pushy, with a cross-wise depression at the break. The left one is rounded side-to-side, otherwise too broken to characterize. Well look on central projection. Back uneven, with clay layers, probably from sloppy trimming.
