Verbal Description:

This was supposed to be a plate that goes on top of incense. This plate has a lot of holes so that the smoke comes through. It has no sign of paint ~~except~~ except for the black <sup>stings</sup> smoke spots in the interior ~~part~~. The surface is very rough and not very symmetrically done.

Pierced ladle censer bowl frag. Interior has fire cloudy (pretty heavy) on the wall. What little of the base that is present is burnt. Exterior is not modified. One portion of a piece is visible, not completely circular - looks a little rough, jagged.
