PASTE INT. 1098. 4/4

PASTE EXT. 1098. 4/2

Portion of a scored censer lid which includes a fragment of the lid's handle. The fragment has been burnt on all sides, but the burning is especially pronounced on the scored surface. There is, however, no fire core. Hardness: 1.8. Surface is rough and there are a few random gouges on the surface with the attached handle. The handle appears to have been formed separately and then pressed onto the remainder of the lid. The 3 widely-spaced diagonal lines appear to have been incised prior to the two parallel lines. There is no paint, slip, or decorative applique. No fire cloud.
