Verbal Description:

This is a fragment with evidence of 2 chambers and an incised exterior wall with a simple linear design. The inclusions are also highly visible on the surface. The chamber walls are smooth and nicely rounded as though formed with a cylindrical implement. Both chambers show definite evidence of burning that gradually diminishes; at the bottom they are very black about $\frac{1}{3}$ up the wall it gets lighter the rest of the way to being almost not burnt at all at the top.

Chamber depths - 4.4cm
4.6cm
