

2020.184

Two Ancient Mediterranean Bronzes

Above: A curved Roman lamp handle terminating in a horse's head and neck with excellent detail. From the Abarbanell collection.

Length: Approx. 3 1/4"

4th C. AD

Below: Bull protome figurehead from a Sardinian votive ship, the upper portion of the bull's left horn now missing. The bronze has been mounted on a small plexiglass stand.

Height of the bronze: Approx. 2 3/4"

8th-7th C. BC

Purchased from Tetragon, London on October 29, 2005, for a total of $2,175.

TETRAGON
antiquities
Harris's Arcade
161 Portobello Road
London W11 2DY

PH 37

Dave Harris
Washington DC
USA

29.10.5

2 ancient bronzes as described

£1175

2020.184

Unconditionally guaranteed to be ancient

& certainly

WELL OVER 100 YEARS OLD

I certify that these pieces were legally located on the European market
prior before 1971

TETRAGON
antiquities
Harris's Arcade
161 Portobello Road
London W11 2DY

~~11~~
AH37

ABARBANELL

Ex Abarbanell Collection

(made pre 2000) ;

4th Century AD bronze horse head from a lamp - handle - flaring nostrils & pricked ears suggest ~~running~~ running ; possibly a racing horse - the London's advised horse races

2020.184

ex Mildenberg Collection, as preserved, ^{POIKASHE} Muralic stone from a Dip. Iron Age II 8th - 7th Century BC

J 1175