

2020.35

ETHIOPIAN SILVER CROSS

A well-worn pectoral cross, the top vertical arm of which terminates in a loop. There is a rectangular "plaque" in the middle (where the four arms converge), containing an etched "X".

Overall length: 1 7/8"

Prob. 18th Century

Purchased in London in June 1979 for $46.