

or just before he left Fargo, Mr. McFadden said, he read that a receiver has been appointed for the entire chain of 37.

Credit was given by the speaker for the conception of a well worked out plan. It fell down, he said, because of the incompetency and dishonesty of those entrusted with the duty of carrying it into effect.

The admission was made frankly that mistakes had been made by those