

TWO BRONZE BYZANTINE PENDANTS

Left: Half of a very small reliquary cross displaying an orans figure with halo. There is no identifying inscription. The figure wears a simple ankle-length robe suggestive of the colobium worn by Christ in early depictions of the Crucifixion. However, the outturned feet and bend of the elbows suggests a figure praying rather than hanging on the cross.

There are double suspension loops at the top and bottom of the cross.

1 7/8" x 7/8"

5th-8th c.

Purchased from Tetragon, London, on June 13, 1992, for $148.

Right: An amulet in the form of an oval with pointed ends; at the top is an integral suspension ring. The piece is decorated with five 'double rings' in the form of a cross.

1 3/8" x 3/4"

5th-8th c.

Purchased from Tetragon, London, on June 13, 1992, for $83.

All objects guaranteed to be ancient 80
& certainly well over 100 years old

TETRAGON

293 Westbourne Grove
London W11

Turkey

cross pendant with cross in dots £45

Bronze seal with winged figure holding cross - Gabriel?

Turkey 5th - 8th Century AD

£130

Annunciation ring seal prob. Turkey

5th - 7th Century AD £75

Small pectoral cross with Christ

Turkey 6th - 10th AD

£80

complete buckle with 2 crosses,

punched, & incised design

Lebanon/Syria 6th - 8th AD £65

Small ring with saint & cross

Lebanon/Syria 5th - 6th AD

£45

+ bone fragment

with forage £50

Coptic, 5th - 6th Century AD

£140

2020.369

2020.93

2020.137

2020.102

2020.92

2020.125

2020.103