Possible questions/104 and more Oral Interviews

Choose and elder member of your family to interview. Ask them some of the questions below (and some of your own). Takes notes so that you can write up a biography from the answers. The purpose of this interview is for you to talk with and learn things about this person that you didn't know. Write their responses on a separate sheet of paper.

1. What city were you born in? Describe where you lived as a child and where it was.

2. Where else have you lived? Did you or your parents/older relatives move from one part of the country to another? When? Why?

3. Did you attend church or religious services? What were your earliest memories of religion in your family?

4. Describe your parents or the people who raised you. What were they like? What did they do?

5. Describe your grandparents. What is most memorable about them.

6. How far back can you trace your family tree? Do you know when they came to America?

7. What are some of your most treasured family traditions? (favorite recipes, rituals, holiday celebrations, oral histories, etc.)

8. Have any of your elders mentioned the term, “Gullah?” If so, what did they say about it and what do you know about it?

9. What did you like to do in your free time? What do you do now?

10. Tell me about a memorable moment in your life you will never forget.

11. What are some changes in our society you have seen in your lifetime? Which ones do you view as positive? Which ones do you view as negative?

12. If you could change ONE thing about the world today, what would it be and why?
