CIVICS CLUB WORK IS TO BE RENEWED

Dr. Cahall is Back of Project to Revive Civics Club—For Three Years Inactive

The Edwin M. Stanton Civics club is to be revived after nearly three years inactivity. Dr. Cahall, professor of economics is taking an active interest in the revival of the organization, and expects to see an enthusiastic, well organized Civics club within a short time.

While the officers of the club will be elected from the students, Dr. Cahall will act as the faculty supervisor. A large number of the students in Dr. Cahall’s economics classes have signified their intention of joining the club.

Preliminary assignments have already been made to some of those who have shown the greatest interest in joining the club. They are to report on economic conditions found in a village such as Gambier, and on the problems which every small village must solve. This is simply a beginning, but later it is the intention of Dr. Cahall to enlarge the scope of the club’s activity greatly.

At this time there is hardly a limit to the problems which a Civics club might discuss. Some of the more important are: the breakdown of international law caused by the present war, the child-labor bill now pending in congress, United States merchant marine and trade with South America, the coming presidential election, our relations with Mexico, the preparedness program and many other present-day problems too numerous to mention.

PHILO IS VICTOR IN STORIES DEBATE

Messrs. Doll, Sheerin, Trotman Tied for First Place in Awarding Individual Prizes

Philo, for the second time in two years, won a unanimous decision over No Pi Kappa in the Stories Debate, held the evening of March 4. The outstanding feature of the contest was the fact that three men, Messrs. Doll, Sheerin, and Trotman, tied for first place in the awarding of the individual prizes.

“Resolved, that there should be an immediate and substantial increase in the army and navy” was the question for debate. The Philo negative team consisted of R. J. Doll, ’17, T. T. Elliott, ’17, and C. W. Sheerin, ’17. J. E. C. Meeker, ’17, and J. S. Trotman, ’17, represented Nupi for the affirmative. The debate was held in Philo Hall, with President Peirce as Chairman; Dr. Harmon, Carson Watson, and R. C. Guice, ’15, acted as judges.

Regarding the merits of the debate itself, the audience was kept in a state of close attention at all times, and there were plenty of clashes to make matters interesting. The speakers were all effective, and in the rebuttals the contest became especially warm.

After announcing that the negative had been awarded the unanimous decision of the judges, Dr. Peirce confessed that he did not know what verdict to render regarding the first

1918 CLASS SONG

While we celebrate thy glory,
When we call to mind thy story
Kenyon, then thy name
Shall our hearts proclaim.
First, of mem'ries treasured dearly
Old Eighteen stands out clearly Kenyon and dear Eighteen.

Chorus

To Kenyon let us show,
With love that awe shall grow,
Honor, worthy praise,
Then to Eighteen raise,
In accents loud and strong,
A hearty, rousing song,
Our hearts remember-United ever—Eighteen and old Kenyon.

CITIES IN THE FUTURE

The first indoor track meet of the year was lost to Ohio Wesleyan on Saturday night, March 11, by the score of 27-25. Although the meet was lost, a good showing was made by the Kenyon track team especially by Galberach who got three firsts, a second and a third.

The Kenyon track team which went to Delaware was composed of only eight men. The very fact of taking so few men convinced the Kenyon team that they would lose the meet on seconds and thirds if nothing else. Wesleyan had a number of fresh men for every event, while Kenyon had to use her eight men to the best advantage.

Wesleyan had also the advantage of training on an indoor track, while the only track Kenyon has known so far this year, has been the Middle Path. The team did even better than was expected considering the few men on the squad. Galberach was a big surprise to Wesleyan and he has been mentioned as a formidable contender for points in the Big Six this spring. Captain Banks of the Wesleyan squad did not participate in the meet.

The summary of events:
40 yard dash—Galberach, Kenyon; Evans, Wesleyan; Brevere, Wesleyan. Time, five seconds.
40 yard low hurdle—Galberach, Kenyon, won;Force, Wesleyan, second; Ward, Wesleyan, third. Time, 5.4 seconds.
40 yard high hurdles—Galberach, Kenyon, won; Ward, Wesleyan, second; Evans, Wesleyan, third. Time, 2.5-3.5 seconds.
220 yard dash—Cherrington, Wesleyan, won; Galberach, Kenyon, second; Evans, Wesleyan, third. Time, 27-5.5 seconds.
440 yard dash—Mauger, Wesleyan, won; Hubbard, Wesleyan, second; Day, Kenyon, third. Time, 57-59 seconds.
One mile run—Schimmel, Wesleyan, won; Brumbaugh, Wesleyan, second; Williams, Kenyon, third. Time, 4:43.
Shut out—Dunn, Wesleyan, won; Fitch, Wesleyan, second; Doll, Kenyon.

Basketball is Over

Kenyon finished up her basketball season in a streak of all luck with the scores quite against her. The teams met outweighed the Maure men and all but one of the games were played on strange floors. First of all, on the southern trip defeat was handed the team at the hands of Cincinnati by a score of 31 to 15. The next night at Oxford Miami showed us the door with a big 24-20 sign hanging over it. At Rose Hall on the following Thursday, however, we politely indicated to them that we knew something about basketball after all and handed them the wrong end of a 31-26 score.

The game at Akron played the evening of February 25 was a farce as far as real basketball was concerned. The game was very slow and about half of the time was spent shooting fool baskets. The result was a score of 33-14 in favor of the Rubber Men. The next night at Wooster the game was much faster, in fact just a little too fast for the Gambier team. So we decided to give Wooster the benefit of a tally of 30-17. The season closed with a fast game at Ohio University, March 4, with the bulk and basket shooting ability of that institution very much in evidence. We have Ohio 36, Kenyon 19. At the finish of the game Sandbeck was elected manager of the team for the season of 1917.

pains to find out the nature of the people's interests and offends them by calling their kings mere princes and by failing to recognize the position of the woman in India. There no corruption is complete unless the man's wife shares it equally with him; consequently the British imperial decrees must contain the names of both Emperor George and Empress Mary to be valid to the Indian mind.

Although Englishmen have written only six books about India, Frechmen have more than double that number, while Germany has printed more than thirty such volumes. But not even in her case has the surface been more than scratched; the real India remains hidden and it passes unperceived that such problems as a universal language have been worked out in India for years, even centuries. For Hindustani is just such a mongrel tongue, a combination of the four purer languages of which the principal ones are Bengali and Hindi.

Prince Sarath Ghosh closed his lecture by recalling his prophecy that the end of the war is to fall on the Orient and by emphasizing again the fact that the true India is as little known today as she ever was; also, that when she does come to her rightful place in the world, she will give to this world some valuable lessons which the United States may be the first to get if her citizens will respond to India's present appeal for our American education and business systems. Why cannot America cease running blindly after wealth and recognize her real mission to the world at this time?
Track practice has begun again, this year with greatly improved facilities. The subway of Roste Hall has been noted, scraped and finished off with five loads of dirt and as a result we have a first class five-lane, twenty yard straightaway track in addition to jumping pits. As there is a full schedule ahead the men are working hard. The men now out, are with two exceptions all of last year's team, Doll, Gregg, Leonard, Day, Levin, C. D. Williams, Goodwin, Adler and Galleghan.

The schedule of meets follows:
March 11—Ohio Wesleyan University—at Delaware.
March 25—Old Kenton vs. Hanna Hall—at Gambier.
April 1—Hendrick Meet—at Gambier.
April 4—Varsity vs. 1919—at Gambier.
April 15—Case (not assured)—at Cleveland.
May 5—Otterbein—at Westerville.
May 13—Ohio University—at Athens.
May 19—St. Marys and Wooster—at Gambier.
May 27—Big Six—at Columbus.

New Grading System
In accordance with the new faculty ruling, professors are enabled to hand the following grades to the registrars:
1. 1.5, 2.5, 3 the last being the passing work as before. The addition of 1.5 and 2.5 gives the professor an opportunity to grade students more exactly and more justly. The grade of 1.5 is an honor grade but does not grant extra credit. Correspondingly the standard of a 1 is raised and a 2 lowered.

Leader—J. R. Goodwin, '16.
Secretary—R. L. Baird, '17.
Treasurer—F. B. Shaver, '17.

LIBRARY RULES
1.—All books except standard books of reference and those in Norton Hall may be drawn out for a period not exceeding two (2) weeks. At the expiration of that time they may be renewed for two weeks longer.
2.—No student is entitled to have more than four (4) books at one time.
3.—All periodicals except those for the current week or month may be drawn out for three days.
4.—On books and magazines that are overdue a fine of two cents a day will be charged.

Signed: E. D. DEVOL.
These rules are extremely simple and there is absolutely no reason for anyone violating them because of a misunderstanding, but the librarians are forced to call attention to these rules, especially the first and third.

Puff and Powder Club
The Puff and Powder Club has been granted the open House Date, Saturday, May 20, for staging a play. The club has done exceptionally good work since its reorganization two years ago, due to the efforts of W. F. Tomks, '10, Bex. '13, and it is expected that it will uphold the standard set in these past two seasons. No play has as yet been finally decided upon and the leader, Mr. Watten, and Dr. Reeves are giving their most careful attention to the selecting of a suitable play.

Leader, assistant professor of English gave an intensely interesting interpretation of "The Idyll of the King" before the members of the Woman's club on the afternoon of February 29, at the parish house.

The Commons

The college Commons as it is now managed is a complete success and is to be commended. After a period of three years' trial it has become the center of student life and activity and we are assured that the Commons has become a permanent Kenyon institution.

In 1802 this institution entered upon Kenyon life. At this time there was no other college Commons in the state worthy of mention and naturally many looked forward eagerly upon this as one of the original ventures. Not only outsiders but many of the students in the college ridiculed the idea of a common eating hall for all the students. Some even accused the authorities of turning Kenyon into a boarding school. Many refused to eat at the Commons after it was established.

How different is the attitude toward the Commons now? How great a part do the three daily visits to the Commons play in every Kenyon man's life? If the Commons were suddenly to be abolished would we suffer an irreparable loss?

But some may say when reading this: "All the men on the Hill are not eating, why?" And they have to pay their Commons' fee just the same. It is true there are some men who seem to prefer eating elsewhere, but the percentage is so small, they are not getting their board any cheaper, nor are they getting any better food, nay, we question whether it is as good. Why then do they not eat with their classmates and fellow-students? Perhaps it is more stylish to eat some place in seclusion.

But the remark true which some one made the other day, that it is worth the price of board alone to be able to eat with your classmates and be in one large dining hall with all the men in college and sing songs and sit around and chat. What a large part of college life the person misses who does not enjoy these advantages.

From statistics gathered we find that the students are very well satisfied with the Commons. The food is excellent and the service is good. It is true that the system of serving has not been perfected yet; but the support of the students and their willingness to help instead of knock will greatly aid in perfecting it.

The Commons this year is without doubt the best in every respect since it was established, and those in charge, are deserving of praise.

It Pays to Advertise

Did you ever stop to think just why it is that Kenyon is so uniformly handled in the athletic pages of various Ohio newspapers? It is not exactly contempt, but a sort of superiority, such as a New York man might feel when walking through the streets of a small middle western town. There are some papers in Cleveland, Columbus and other cities who regard Kenyon as being "small town stuff."

In days past when Kenyon used to struggle with O. S. U. for football supremacy on Thanksgiving day, our athletic teams were responsible for bringing the college into the journalistic lime-light. Now that our teams are of a mediocre value as advertisements, we should take other steps to bring the college before the public in such cities as New York, Chicago, St. Louis and Detroit as well as Ohio cities where we have alumni who have long since given up all hope of ever seeing any Kenyon news in the local papers.

Waren H. Mann, '00, is connected with the Chicago Evening Post and furthermore is very desirous of getting a line on Kenyon news, not only athletic, but campus activities as well. The Collegian comes out but once in two weeks and it is therefore inadequate for conveying news to daily papers.

Would it be radical and out of place to suggest a publicity man, elected by the assembly, to make special efforts to have Kenyon more widely advertised? There are men in college who represent Cleveland and Columbus papers, but it's the towns outside of the state which should be reached. Then, too, there are a great number of middle sized towns in Ohio that should know more about Kenyon. Such cities as Dayton, Youngstown, Springfield, Akron, Canton, Belleville, Steubenville, Toledo and Sandusky should be notified of important Kenyon doings.

Easter Campaign

With the approach of the spring vacation, the question of carrying on another Easter campaign to secure additional students is before the men of Kenyon. The desirability of carrying out this plan is unquestioned, as it has been tried successfully in the past, and the increased size of recent entering classes can be traced directly to it.

To new men it may be stated that the plan is to have every student visit some preparatory or high school during the vacation and interest men in the idea. This should be energetically carried out, and to secure good results must be. Last year the efforts made fell off from previous years and the number of prospective students reported was very disappointing. It is to be hoped that an earnest effort will be made this spring by every man who has the best interests of Kenyon at heart.

The Assembly Again

At the last Assembly a warm discussion was held on a subject which received attention for nearly the whole year, namely, the miserably poor attendance at Assembly meetings. Considering the fact that Kenyon is an exponent of the most advanced system of student government, there is all the more reason to feel the disgraceful lack of interest shown by the students in their own body politic. To discuss the advisability of a full attendance at Assembly is unnecessary; but some remedies may well be suggested.

In the first place, if upperclassmen as a whole do not set an example to the freshmen, those who are interested can insist upon their attendance at the meetings. The freshmen might well show the proper spirit to the other classes. In the second place, a man who does not show interest in the Assembly has no right to a vote in it; and if other means fail, we advocate withdrawing this right, by an constitutional amendment if necessary, from students who fail continually to appear at meetings.

Terra Firma

Swimming up the Middle Path to the Commons for meals has not been much fun, and therefore it is with much pleasure that we see the college adding a little of the much needed terra firma to the source of our discomfort. In a few more days every bad spot will be filled up. As it is the worst places around the entrances to the dormitories have been taken care of. When rainy days do come no more will anyone be seen doing the Australian crawl and the overhead trudge in an attempt to get to the Commons before the meal is over.

Pop Concerts

Gambler is going to lose a valuable Pop concert organizer in Dr. Barrett. 99 when he graduates in June from Beasley. During the last three years he has provided us with mighty good concerts, and we do so say that his efforts have been appreciated. Now a Pop Concert is an institution peculiar to Gambler, and it's worth is recognized readily. In looking around for a successor to the role of organizer, we are forced to ask the question; is there enough pop in the school to make this institution permanent? Next year the Sweetvilles will be back, and there will be plenty of local talent. The playing end is taken care of. We have men here who can get up a concert and it is on them that we must rely.

Revised Interest

Through the influence, doubtless of the recent State debate, a marked revival of interest has been awakened in debating and in the literary societies of eKenyon. This is particularly fortunate inasmuch as interest along literary lines has been conspicuous by its lack in the last few years. This affords the needed opportunity of increasing the scope and importance of the literary societies and it is to be hoped that this interest is not merely transitory, but will have a lasting effect.

May Nineteenth

With the approach of the warmer season we are reminded that the 19th of May is not very far distant. This date is very significant in that it represents the time at which the Sophomore Hop is to take place. Preparations are already under way for a Hop that is to make the college sit up and take notice and it is sure to be a great success—with the right kind of cooperation on the part of the student body.

The Sophomore class, as yet unencumbered by debts, should not be thrown into a state of bankruptcy just because they are trying to enjoy themselves by making a generous outlay for good music, a good supper and good decorations. The freshmen were not present at Prov in as large a proportion as usual which shows that they enjoy dancing, one could truly say that they do not appreciate what they are missing. Write to her today and fix it up for May 19th. H. S. D.

Intercollegiate Prohibition Association Convention To Be Held at Westerville

The state convention of the Inter-collegiate Prohibition association will be held at Westerville, April 14 and 15. D. Leigh Calvin, the national president, will be one of the speakers. The state convention will be held at this time. The best orators from the leading colleges and universities of the state will take part in this competition. A large number of delegates will be present at the convention from the various colleges and universities of the state.

Two girls' debates have been arranged between Indiana and DePauw Universities.
Summer Military Camps
The Military Training Camps Association of the United States is an organization formed by the merger in January, 1916, of the Students’ and the Business Men’s organizations which had camps last Summer at Plattsburgh, Ludington, Fort Sheridan, and at other places under the direction of the War Department. President Henry Sturgis Drinker of Lehigh University has elected Chairman of the Governing Council of the Association. It is composed of the heads of all the colleges and universities of the United States, to be managed, as the advice of the University Presidents’ Advisory Committee, which operated in the Students’ training camps moved.

Plans for the camps next summer are being worked out by the Association, which has established its main ofcice at 31 Nassau Street, New York, and will have branches at Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, and at other large cities.

It will be remembered that the first Summer Military Training Camps for Students were instituted in the summer of 1912, and were held in the East at Georgetown, the names of all who attended the business men’s camps and the students’ camps have come to the Association, and the names of all University and College alumni and students throughout the country so far as they can be obtained from col-gen catalogs and alumni registers, will be published in a permanent form.
These catalogs are completed, full information will be sent out to all persons interested, and the releases will be handled next summer with enrollments to be signed by those desiring to attend.

The present membership of the Association of all men who have attended these camps for the last three years, number over 4,000 men, and the indications are that the enrollment for the coming summer will run up into many thousands.

The camps are essentially entries, and are open to all applicants of good moral character, physically qualified. Inquiries should be addressed to Report of the Advisory Committee Of University Presidents on the Summer Military Institution Camps for Students

This camps have now been in op-teration for three successive summers.
In their growth and admirable management during the past two summers of 1914 and 1915, they have more than fulfilled the expectations of those endorsing them, based on the first year’s experience in the summer of 1913. The lessons taught in these camps in the breakout of the great war abroad, which has brought into greater prominence than before their value to the nation.

We repeat the hearty endorsement given our reports on the Camps held in 1913 and 1914. This year they were visited by a number of the members of our committee, and the commitee as a whole has given attention and thought to their educational usefulness in the summer season.

The students attending are under careful oversight. The excellence of

The Training Camps Association has been well maintained. The students have an ideal five weeks outside of Monterey, California. These were followed by students’ camps in the summer of 1914 at Burlington, Vt., Ludington, Mich., Adelphi, N. C., and the Presidio of Monterey, Cal., and in the summer of 1915 by students’ camps at Plattsburgh, N. Y., Ludington, Mich., and the Presidio of San Francisco.

In 1915 camps were established for Business Men at various points, the one held at Plattsburgh following the students’ camps, being the largest.

During the past two years financial difficulties have been experienced in most of the camps, representing the students’ and the business men’s organizations, and the Advisory Committee of University Presidents, have been in conference as to the advice they were able to give in the joint organization, with the result that the students’ and business men’s organizations have been merged, forming The Military Training Camps Associa-tee issued by a Governing Committee composed of representatives from the Advisory Committee of University Presidents, from the Business Men’s Camps, held at Plattsburgh, and Fort Sheridan,

THE REV. LOUIS DE CORMIS

The Rev. Louis de Cormis, who was rector of All Saints’ Church at Great Neck, L. I., from 1867 to 1895, died last week at his home in Brookline, Mass. Dr. de Cormis was born in Norfolk, Va., January 14, 1846. He was graduated from Kenyon College in 1870, and from the Episcopal Theological School of Cambridge.

Northern Illinois College conferred the degree of D. D. on him in 1898, and Ewing College that of L.D.D. in 1900.
Dr. de Cormis was assistant minister of St. Anne’s Church, Brookline, for two years previous to going to Great Neck.

From All Saints’ Church he went to St.
Paul’s Church, Columbia, Pa, where he remained from 1895 to 1901, and then went to Cambridge, serving for a time at St. Paul’s Church, Boston. He was a member of the Society of Colonial Wars, and was a descendant of Edward Coke, Deputy Governor under Governor Bradford, of Plymouth Col-
y. The latest organization at the University of Minnesota is a "Bald-Head Club. Membership is open to anyone with "three square inches of cleared forest on his block."
WHERE IS BANS?

On a certain Wednesday about three weeks ago two young and enterprising Kenyon men decided that they needed to go to Bans on a business trip. Of course there was no reason why they should reveal the reasons for the intended trip, but in this case they seemed to take on an added air of mystery about it. They departed in state on the 4:50 p.m. and returned in disgust just exactly ten hours later. Although they will divulge very little concerning the results they accomplished, it is rumored that they did not have a very good time, in fact that time had hung rather heavily on them.

To make the mystery a little clearer, two Kenyon men were intending to pull off a little clandestine party with some Hanover girls at Mt. Vernon. Someone got wind of it and sent them a telegram, supposedly from the girls, saying that Mt. Vernon would not be safe and to come over instead. Therefore they went to Bans and found nothing but a bit of pastoral scenery with railroad tracks in the foreground. They decided to make use of the tracks and walked to Mt. Vernon. They did this and had a nice long rest after their walk, waiting for the 2:45 a.m. train. For the sake of the girls our society reporter was bidden not to mention any names, but let this be a lesson to those who would fix up secret parties and violate the laws of the Sovereign State of Hard court.

and second prizes, on account of the tie between the two contestants. Dr. Reeves was asked his opinion, but de clined to settle the question, which he referred to the higher mathematics of Dr. Allen. As the only apparent solu tion, the matter was left to the three winners for a decision.

With four debates now past since the Stires debate was revived between the two societies, the series stands at a deadlock, each organization having won two events. The present victory for Philo is perhaps the most sweeping, as the negative team not only won the decision, but had two men tied for first place out of three voted for by the judges.

Interdivision Basketball

This phase of athletics has been very actively participated in this season and the games have all been well fought and interesting. Special interest has been aroused by the trophy to be presented to the winning team, a silver loving cup. This was bought with the proceeds of these games, the admission being five cents. This price will be raised to fifteen for the final game, the South-Hanna-East Division game, which will probably be played the last of this week. The teams are fairly evenly matched and a good exhibition of basketball is looked for. The interest manifested is sufficient proof that interdivisional basketball has come to be an annual event.

Championship Game Feb. 10

In the last game of the Inter-di vision Championship series, South Hanna defeated East Division 32-13, taking first place and incidentally the silver cup. One of the most notable features of the game was the large number of freshmen in the game. White, Lowry and Gunn for East, and Gordon, Harkness, and Bauer of South, were easily the stars of the game. If these men are all back Kenyon will have one of the best teams in the country.

The game was called at four o’clock sharp, Arty King referred. The East started the scoring when Welsh made a pretty pass to Lowry who was un guarded. Bauer then scored a field basket for South. White for East then made a get-away from Herb Harkness and shot a basket. At this juncture "East" Peirce was heard to exclaim, "My what a figure, I wish I had his physique, to think of him throwing men off him that way." The writer wanted to tell him that Welsh was a foundry product, but deemed it undesirable. Endle and Maxwell, who played the forwards for South Hanna, began to work together and the result of the game was no longer in doubt. Harkness and Mueller, guards for South, kept down Lowry and White. This was the point by which the game was decided.

South Hanna had the best team any division has had for years. They have a better team than East Division and deserved the championship which they have won.

MARCH ASSEMBLY

The principal business transacted by the Assembly meeting, March 8, was the appointment of a committee to confer with the Executive Committee on the signing up of Coach Kelkner for next year. Members of the various athletic teams expressed their wish that the Coach be signed up for another year.

Mr. King was elected to the Dormitory Committee from the Eighteenth Constitutional Division.

Mr. Appel was elected to the Executive Committee from the Second Constitutional Division.

About half of the student body were present at this assembly. Despite an appeal from the columns of the Collegian not much more than a bare quorum could be assembled. Messrs. Arent and DeWolf spoke on this lack of attendance. Mr. Arent called to attention the deplorable lack of interest of the students in their own governing body, and Mr. DeWolf suggested that more time be given to the singing of college songs at the Commons.

Commons' Waiters Hold Ball

On the evening of March 6, the Benevolent Order of Hashbrowners assembled "en masse" at the Commons; not for the purpose of carrying out their official duties, but to tip the light fantastic. Naught did they care for their handsomely starched white jackets or any such flimsy affair, for they were beautifully suited-up in their Sunday attire. Nor could the accustomed disdain be seen gracefully dangling on their hips, for there were simply bearskin wraps. As the time-pieces tolled the hour of eight, the bewitching tunes of "Oh You Beautiful Doll" issued from the depths of the honored Vizcoda, and the Knights of the Dishpan leading their fair ones, gracefully tripped the steps of the Waiter's Circle. By ten o'clock the select band of jollymakers parambled to the Mess-room, where they partook of delectable strawberry-colored ice cream and flossy little cakes. At the approach of midnight, the happy and tired bevy wended their way home.

Prize Sarah Ghosh May Return

Prize Sarah Ghosh of Ghosh-Parker bids, may come back to Gambier the last of the month to deliver another lecture which will be a supplement to his lecture of February 28, on "The New Olive and the War." His return to Gambier will be assured if he decides to come back to Ohio for the purpose of lecturing at Reserve or Ohio.

Lecture by President Peirce

If "Washington Were President" was the subject of a lecture delivered by President Peirce in Mt. Vernon recently. Dr. Peirce discussed the present day problems before the nation in the light of Washington's character, and gave his opinion of his views. He is the head of the present administration.

To Celebrate Shakespeare's Birthday

Plans for a commemorative musical and dramatic celebration on or near Shakespeare's birthday in April, are being made by J. P. DeWolf, '17, Leader of the Glee Club, and D. H. Wattley, '17, Director of the Puff and Powder Club.

This concert is to be given by the Glee Club, and its main feature will be the rendition of historic settings of songs found in Shakespeare's plays or referred to in his works. These songs will be divided into groups with a brief explanation of the character of each group. Both solos and choruses will be given, and one or two humorous numbers are planned.

Wherever it is possible, the old settings used in Shakespeare's time will be used, and a careful search is being made in the Library for the old airs. A wealth of material has already been found in Chappell's collection of old English ballads. Where the original music has been lost, settings by the best modern composers will be given.

In addition to the musical program, the Puff and Powder club is planning to give a short scene from one of Shakespeare's plays, probably the "Pyramus and Thisbe" scene from the "Midsummer Night's Dream."

Dr. Reeves has given his hearty endorsement to the projected celebration, and it is his belief that the program will be not only historically instructive, but extremely interesting as well.

Former West Point Chaplain Here

The Rev. and Mrs. Travers, of Trinity Church, Pittsburg, were entertained at the President's home, while in Gambier. Mr. Travers, a graduate of Trinity College, Hartford, and formerly chaplain of the Government Military Academy, at West Point, preached a very excellent and inspiring sermon to the college men on Sunday morning, February 27th.

The library has recently received about one hundred new books, which have been purchased through both the Hoffman Fund and the Stevens Fund. These books take in several of the new courses in College as well as a few of the older ones. These new books are to be found in the south-west corner of the library.

THE REV. W. A. THOMAS, '12

Of Xenia, O., to Go As Missionary To Alaska

Xenia, O.—Missionary work of the Episcopal church in the heart of Alaska. This is the devoted, self-sacrificing labor which the Rev. William A. Thomas, '12, will take up next summer.

At the Sunday morning services at Christ church he announced this to his congregation, and also told them that he would resign his parish June 1, and would sail from Seattle for the scene of his mission labors about July 1.

His plans, which he has been formulating for months, were virtually completed last week in New York, where he held a conference with Archbishop Hudson Stuck, the renowned Archbishop of the Yukon, and the Mission Board of the Episcopal church.

"I feel that this is the greatest need in the church, a field where the laborers are few and for which there are few volunteers," said Mr. Thomas in giving his reason for taking up the work.

As a missionary in the interior of Alaska, Mr. Thomas will traverse miles of his frozen territory with dog team, and will live away from all but the crudest forms of civilization virtually all the time. He will enter the service for a period of five years, and at the conclusion of that time may decide to continue in the work.

Spanish Class

A class in Spanish very similar to that in Russian has been started by Professor Larson. The class is open to both faculty and students and several are taking advantage of it. The course is taught by a Porto Rican, Mr. Olson, studying at Ohio State University. He comes to Gambier every Friday; has this class that evening and another at Harcourt Saturday. Both courses are chiefly conversational.

In the evening of March 3, about thirty-five couples enjoyed an informal subscription dance at Rosse Hall. Parker's Saxophone orchestra of Columbus furnished the music for the occasion. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves until the music stopped playing at twelve o'clock. As the dance was a success financially as well as materially, more are assured after the Lenten season.
