Still Incensed Over Cage Defeat, Mount Will Seek Revenge

Bob Deikman Will Play at Fall Dance

Fourteen Pieces Band to Furnish Music and Entertainment At Annual Banquet

The Dance Committee announced yesterday that Bob Deikman and his Recording Orchestra have been engaged for the annual Fall Dance, to be held the weekend of the Homecoming.

The Deikman organization hails from Lima, Ohio, and will return at the homecoming. He has played at several of the previous homecoming events, including the Netherland's Plaza, and Castle Farms. His music has been heard over all the radio stations WLTW, WJOL, and WGOV.

The band has eleven pieces, and in addition to the eleven, Bob carries five vocalists, two boys and three girls.

The Dance Committee urges everyone to attend the dance, but to bring Friday. Bill Daniel has stated for the prom, of this the biggest and best Fall Dance in years, we intend to put the musical and social entertainment, and the one don't fail to show up for the autumn balls. For we are sure that the students of Kenyon and Bob and his boys are even better than theirs.

Delts Take Tough Grid Championship

Middle Leonard, Outplayed in First Period, Comes Back to Win in 2nd Half

Final Score 6-0

Middle Leonard outplayed the final and conquering forces held on the intradisciplinary football championship last Thursday when they outflanked former Middle Leonard team by a 6 to 0 score. The game, attended with well planned outwits and many attempted long passes by Middle Leonard, was harassed with the occasional pass over center and flat lateral, by Middle Leonard, exhibited probably the best organized football game of the season.

In the first half of the Middle Leonard displayed a slightly better game than did the Delta. The boys were able to develop their offensive and accuse what of a real play. With the ball in their possession on Middle Ham's new-twenty-five yard line, the ball was handled. Several times an attempt to get the bulk of the way, through a perfectly blocked off line, was cut short. The Delta managed to hold up the goal and a touchdown. Rees- dren's attempt to kick the extra point was blocked.

In the last half, although Middle Leonard played the better game, the score remained the same.

Oberlin Game to Be Kenyon Day's Dad

Kenyon Club's Play and Party To Be Part of Day's Celebration

"We read two hundred Dads down here for the Oberlin game," said Rudy Synder at a meeting of the senior Council Thursday night.

The Oberlin game has been arranged for a Kenyon Dad's Day and the athletic Department urges every man in college to make a res- effect to bring his Dad to Kenyon for the week-end. Although this custom is generally observed by the majority of American colleges and university Kenyon has never employed the idea. The students are asked, if at all possible, to bring their fathers to the hill for this first Kenyon Dad's Day.

Posters for the week-end will be distributed to the Kenyon clan party to be held in the afternoon football the week-end. The Clan has sent out three hundred invitations to form Kenyon information and to impress every man and his father to the celebration. A short play and possibly a dance entertainment will be presented at the gathering. This year's program will feature the present Kenyon athletes and the Clan hopes to put on a great show.

THIS is the first of two columns which will make up a page devoted to Kentucky's two colleges. The two columns will discuss the history and traditions of the two institutions.

President Kappa, a member of the Alpha Chi Omega fraternity, has been elected to serve as president of the college for the next two years. He is an enthusiastic student who has been involved in many extracurricular activities. His term in office will be marked by a focus on community service and leadership.

The college has recently undergone a renovation of the library, which will include the addition of new study rooms and a research center. The renovation is expected to be completed by the end of the fall semester.

The college's athletic teams are preparing for the upcoming season, with practices and training sessions already underway. The football team is looking to build on its success from last year, while the basketball team is hoping to improve its record.

The college's literary magazine, The Review, is now accepting submissions for its fall issue. Students are encouraged to submit their work, which can include poetry, fiction, and creative non-fiction.

The college's music department is hosting a series of concerts throughout the semester, featuring a variety of performers and genres. The concerts are free and open to the public.

The college's art department is hosting an exhibition of student artwork, which will be on display in the art gallery throughout the semester. The exhibition is a great opportunity for students to showcase their talent and gain exposure.

The college's student government is hosting a variety of events and activities throughout the semester, including a student conference, a debate tournament, and a talent show. These events are a great way for students to get involved and make new friends.

The college's dining services is offering a variety of new menu items, including vegetarian options and gluten-free dishes. The menu is updated regularly, so there is always something new to try.

The college's alumni association is hosting a series of events throughout the year, including a reunion, a lecture series, and a scholarship fund-raising event. These events are a great way for alumni to stay connected and support the college.

The college's faculty and staff are dedicated to providing a top-notch education for its students. With a commitment to excellence, the college is well-positioned to continue its success in the years to come.

We hope you enjoy this column and look forward to sharing more about Kentucky's two colleges in the future.
So Mild! YOU CAN
SMOKE ALL YOU WANT

- If you have searched for cigarette mildness, mark the words of George W. Davis, the comic champion and '76 Gridiron star, Cyril Harrison. "Camels," says Mr. Harrison, "are so mild they don't upset the nerves or affect the wind. And when I'm tired I get a 'lift' with a Camel." And Mr. Harrison adds: "I understand that more expensive tobaccoes are used in Camel. They are gentle on the throat. And Camels never get my wind." Turn to Camel and enjoy to the fullest the pleasure that comes from softer tobaccos.
