THE MARCH DANCE!

Efforts to have a dance in celebration of the eighteenth March seemed to go nowhere. But the "First Legion," as Wayne McNeill and the Collegeton were known, was supported by both the administration and the Senior Council. The dance was intended to break up the long "study period" from January to March.

The Student Assembly meeting in the Great Hall of the Collegeton last week at which the dancing voted on Saturday evening was the first Assembly meeting attended by the new Dean of Women, Miss Doree Frey. McNeill was not present at this meeting due to illness.

Wayne McNeill, who was promoted to the first ten in National making after his fine showing at Forest Hills last season, where he defeated Bernard Gottfried of Kenyon, the Kenyon netmen will begin their 1988 campaign on the same floor that McNeill gained the National Junior title a year ago. McNeill is needed second behind Wayne Davis, Davis Cup November last season, who defeated him. McNeill has been known as the New York after making the rounds of the southern winter tournament scene.

The tennis is reaching the final stages and both McNeill and Morey have reached the finals in both the opening rounds. The loss was caused by an injury to McNeill and by an injury to Morey.

The final was too much for Paul Grechemer at this time and the two matches were played to the best of 14 sets. McNeill defeated McNeill of two players without the loss of a set. In turn he defeated Morey, and by giving them a first set, McNeill defeated Silver and by giving them a first set, McNeill defeated McNeill of two players without the loss of a set.

The match was played on the tennis court in front of the Kenyon tennis court after the match was finished.

George Brown of the Women's tennis team was out in the first round in Middle States ranking and received eight in the tournament.

I am a little concerned that you are writing the letter which I thought of writing last fall. Perhaps all this will be of no consequence. I suppose, in your younger years, I was late on your aggressor editorial policy. I was very much aware in all my youthful years of the bold black headline: "Hawksbeck Becomes Halfwits." It certainly has been stretching the truth a bit, but it certainly was a provocative story. After all, you know, you're 23 years old now and 23 years old have, in my years, good and bad, triumphed against the cold. I hope you weren't doing anyone any harm.

Dear Mr. Editor:

I have just received my latest copy of The Collegian and, while my impression is that it is not my usual favorite, I am writing you the letter which I thought of writing last fall. Perhaps all this will be of no consequence. It certainly has been stretching the truth a bit, but it certainly was a provocative story. After all, you know, you're 23 years old now and 23 years old have, in my years, good and bad, triumphed against the cold. I hope you weren't doing anyone any harm.

submit our view of a movie script
in Hollywood will soon be forced to prepare them.

Title—Love Dreams of Youth

Audience—Teenage Youth

Makc Title—Baby's Twilight
Reapture—Baby's—amazingly

matically

Author—Author's name deserted—once wrote a novel in which the heroine was an old man.

Approved Title—Twilight Rev-

erie

Final Change—Twilight Reverie

by Charles—O. K. except cut out

by—words like an introduction to an oath, such as, "By George."

AT LAST:

Twilight Reverie

Charles

Plot of story—starving synids—"normal" teaches(kids to

so, and "Platc" teaches them un-

and based gangster methods.

Outlines Procedure—Janey is making ready for bed (that's out)

Janey is making ready. She is playing with her doll. Janey is dressed as Mrs. Robinson on a date.

(Dress, of course, is right length

and accompanied by proper underdings.)

Dialogue—Janey: "I love you."

(Cool Tone) "I—out."

Action—Janey turns doll over gently

executing such discretion—not too

wrong—action continued. Doll classes his eyes—but not pannistically.

Music. (Cut on mother angle.)

I "I'm on you, Janey."

Twilight fades as it slowly deteriorates (not so dark as to frustrate the kids through) out from Turner, Hanock, and Lawler. It was also noticed that he will be of great help to the team in the backstroke next year.

However, diving is improving with practically and he should add

Darin in the department next year.

All in all this is good news when we recall that Coach fell loose such tremendous as Matthew, Bacon,

and Seaborg. Else is lost but one

as a freshman and a backstroke. Leng,

last year's conference champion,

diver, and Shaver, an improved

swimmer, are all lost by graduation.

Coach Imel in looking to next years hopes for the best, but one must remember that losing six

swimmers from an undefeated team

is no easy job to fill.

Due to advertising contracts,

the Collegian will not be published next week.

the villain, while in still another you must play an old wreck of a man. In addition, in any touring company you play under different conditions each night. You must be able to adapt yourself in those as they come up, with a skill that would make any self-respecting chameleon envious. Then with the Jimmy Players, there are a few other things that are essential, such as driving or being late, making excuses, mending scenery, fixing lights, dressing wigs; etc. Sometimes a curious member of the public will put one through a regular third degree of questioning, and then you must explain patiently, and without letting your angelic disposition, just what you do with your “spare time.”

With the company this season are many actors who have made names for themselves with the Jimmy Players. Those will include Alice Chancy, Dorothy Bowerland, Penelope Harrison, and Phyllis Flanagan. Among the newcomers will be Bertrice Cari, Franklin Dewing, Jabez Gray, Virginia Keller, King Donovan, and John Balmer.

Tickets for the performance of the “Divide” to be given on Sunday evening, March 20, are now on sale at the office of the Register, and at the Department of Speech. The price is 50c.

The Intramural swimming match will be held the afternoons of March 9 and 13, respectively. Each team may enter any one man in any three events and may enter any three men in any event but must scratch one before the meet. Any two men from the same team can compete in any one event. All entries close at the last next Monday at noon. The following is the list of events to be held:

15 yard breaststroke.
50 yard free relay.
50 yard freestyle.
75 yard breaststroke.
100 yard free style relay
100 yard freestyle.
150 yard freestyle.
Fancy diving.

“ARE CAMELS REALLY DIFFERENT FROM OTHER CIGARETTES?...a question of interest to every smoker

“I’ve never been very fussy about cigarettes myself. Do you think that Camels are really as different as some people say, Bill?”

“You bet they are different, John! A fellow in any work as hard as selling has to figure a lot of angles on his smoking, such as how it agrees with him. And just notice how many salesmen smoke Camels. I changed to Camels—smoked ‘em steadily—and I found a distinct difference in the way I enjoyed all-day smoking and in the way I felt. Camels agree with me!”

A FRIEND DROPS IN (above) to see Bill’s model smoker. Daly passes the Camels and answers a natural question, “That all-cigarettes-are-like talk doesn’t square with my experience. Believe me, steady smoking is the test that shows Camels in a class by themselves. They don’t make my nerves edgy.”
