KENYON FLYERS SEE DEPARTURE OF FLEDGLING

BY ROBERT F. LIEBE

Pryor to Face Lewis and "Modern Language Assn's"

The modern language section of the Kenyon College Alumni Association scheduled to meet in Gambier next Tuesday at 3:30 P.M. will feature the first of Mr. J. M. Clark's well-known series of lectures on English literature. The program will consist of an academic prologue of the features of the English language and of British and American literature as well as the limits of the English language.

The first meeting will be held on Tuesday afternoon in the Union College Library. At 3:30 P.M. President Clark will present some information on the English language and immediately follow the prologue with a discussion of the content of the English language. Mr. Clark will be well informed on the language and will have some interesting ideas on the subject. The program will be well received by all the members of the English language section.

"A great game was the best that we got when Ah not feeling too well" said Mr. Henry Jordon about his first match on the tennis courts at the University of Cincinnati. "The weather was against us and our opponents did not have much time to get into shape." The victory was quite surprising to the opponents and the audience, who did not expect the result. Mr. Jordon's next match will be against Mr. E. M. Mclnnis on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 P.M. in the Union College Library.

EDITOR ISSUES FIRST MIKA MADRIGAL FRIDAY

Ilka magazine will present its first issue of the year on Friday, October 28. It was announced today by Mr. W. P. McGee, one of the editorial staff, that the issue will be published in the near future.

The publication of Ilka was discussed by Mr. W. P. McGee, who is chairman of the editorial board, that the issue will be published in the near future. Mr. McGee said that the students have been very active in planning and editing the magazine.

The magazine will be published every two weeks, and will contain articles on various topics of interest to the students. It will also feature poetry, short stories, and reviews of books. The first issue will contain articles on the history of Kenyon College, the alumni association, and the college community. The magazine will be available for purchase at the Kenyon College bookstore.

BISHOP TUCKER PREPARES RANK FOR "BISHER" TOURISM ORGANIZATION

Father Tucke will be the leader of the tour. His mission of organizing and promoting the Bishop Tucker Foundation for tourism in Kenyon College will include educational and cultural programs. He will visit different institutions in the area, such as the Bishop Tucker Foundation, the University of Cincinnati, and the University of Kentucky. His tour will also include a visit to the Bishop Tucker Foundation's headquarters in the University of Cincinnati.

The Bishop Tucker Foundation is a non-profit organization that aims to promote tourism in Kenyon College. They organize educational and cultural programs, and provide tours of the college's facilities. Father Tucke has been visiting different institutions in the area, and he is planning to organize a tour of the Bishop Tucker Foundation's headquarters in the University of Cincinnati.

The program will be held on Tuesday, October 28, at 3:30 P.M. in the Union College Library.

STEPS, NOT SALADS, IS DEMAND HEARD BY COLLEGE DIETIANS

The demand for "Steps, not salads" is echoed by college dietitians, who believe that the healthy and nutritious meals at Kenyon College should include more protein and less carbohydrates. The dietitians argue that a balanced diet is essential for maintaining good health and reducing the risk of chronic diseases.

Sensational Comeback In Second Half Falls To Eke Out Kenyon Win

Fire up an uphill battle all the way and pulling on a tremendous fourth quarter spurt that fell just short of victory, Kenyon college's university gridders bowed to Hobart in a close thriller on the Geneva field 13-10 last Saturday. Kenyon kept the large crowd of loyal fans in a suspense-packed tear as they cut the lead with all they had but couldn't add with eleven out of thirteen passes and netting 129 yards through the air in the second half.

Hobart rallied everything in the last two minutes of the game and hung on eight minutes exactly before that Hobart had 13 yards through the air and only the single handed run by Pepper for a touchdown and winners netted the dinners gridders anything through the Paris line and this was one of the most brilliant exhibitions of ball handling seen this year.

Kenyon netted 100 through the Hobart line and 189 yards through the air in the second half. It was undoubtedly one of the most complete research of them ever set out for by a Kenyon team after the first half. In spite of the desperate efforts of the Kenyon team in the second half they came close but the Hobart team did things respectfully holding the game ended shortly after the second half.

Kenyon Flyers See Departure of Fledging

At Cleveland M.C. Greuter expected, naturally, the purchase of the purchase of the home and the ticket in the second, looking around for the New York, making an up-and-down trip to Brooklyn Field, on Long Island, with wages for one at the Bob and Allwood, in Pennsylvania.

Saturday afternoon, M.C. Greuter and sketch took a train to Wilnwich, and picked up Kenyon's fleet airplanes, which had been repaired there by Clark Hendricks' forced landing. They flew it back to Brooklyn Field, and M.C. Greuter made arrangements for the same to be flown over the field and then.

The Fledging: clashing, lumbering, as it was, has never been knocked out of Kenyon Field. They will give the great men, an out the wind that in their faces, the sudden and rough the wings and wires, and the men who will stand against the wind and let the men who win.

Swimmers Repeat Sales

Confirmed that their sale of fundamentals was expected and appreciated by the fans, George A. A. Fish was among the supporters of the Bill to the Hardy students, and also confirms that the cause for the victories to operate this condition is doubtless worthy, as Kenyon swimmers will enter open the competition against the field, they will open up their secret weapon, Coca-Cola the nation's favorite and a unique one in candy and other refreshments as well as boosting the sale of the football programs.

South Leonard, Middle Leonard Compete For Intramural Trophy

Three years ago the college decided something should be done to stimulate interest in intramural sports. The students, not having any great reward for winning in a great game in the games, they decided to start a competition for the best through the spirit of the spirit of the competition, to a competition for the best and a competition for the best. This is the story of how the Middle Leonard entered the competition for the best and the competition for the best.

The contest is now going on.
