A true trumpet wail is to a well-known musician the symphony of a rich and noble orchestra. He recognizes it amid the hoarse and discordant chords of a noisy dance band. He has eliminated the discord, and heard a sonata of true beauty.

Fall Dance Expenses, 1936-37-38

This expense account has been issued by the College Treasurer as an explanation of the dance expenses questioned in last week's "Collegian." 1936 and 1937 expenses were actual costs of the dances--1938 is listed as a budget of estimated expenses for the dance week this year.

DON'T MIX SAYS DAKE

"If you want to party and plot this is not for you. We're being socialized with Dr. John Dake, the third meeting of the Medical Club last Monday evening. "The two don't jibe," Dake says. "There is a waste of time and talent in this sort of activity. It is often amusing, but it is not worth the while to take part in such things.""

Dake's speech was given at the New York Medical Club last Monday evening. "The two don't jibe," Dake says. "There is a waste of time and talent in this sort of activity. It is often amusing, but it is not worth the while to take part in such things.""

Dake says that the waste is not only in time and energy, but also in money. "The two don't jibe," Dake says. "There is a waste of time and talent in this sort of activity. It is often amusing, but it is not worth the while to take part in such things."" of lest this made no more that statement in regard to the Japanese attitude.

2. War is now inevitable in Europe, and the speaker claimed that this was the first time he had ever made that statement in regard to the Japanese attitude.

Mr. Brown went on to give some indications of what the future might mean for the world. "There are," he said, "the only way to farm the war is to use hitler and Mussolini's ideas and to stop toward putting the rest of Europe under a similar system of rule."

For these reasons, and since Hitler and Mussolini are convinced that the democracies are decadent, they might turn their arms toward the west, and attack England and France. This would appeal to Mussolini, because it would enable him to grab the land completing his new Roman Empire. Such an attack would unmistakably start a world war.
