A Kenyon Night at Commencement Time

Classes Ending in 4 and 9 Expect Large Aggregation

Chairman Mell Predicts Brilliant Class Night Display

If your class year ends with the number 4 or 9 most of your classmates will be in the Hill this commencement, according to Dr. C. W. Mell, 21, in charge of class plans. He said that preparations for the coming class night were well under way. In addition to the regular plans for the evening there are in preparation for all classes bearings these lucky num-

The President's Invitation

To the Class of 1910 and 94

When you add them up, there have been many changes in Kenyon in the past few years, a condition contrary to college science what has occurred in the lifetime of the faculty, the student body, the daily life of the place. We have been through a considerable period.

We all feel first of all that improvement in leadership because it means change, and any change is a worry. Are the old purposes and aims the same? Are the students and teachers and college board the same? We hope you come back to Commencement and see. In college and school circles throughout the country, there have been people who Kenyon men have thought all along—Kenyon is an interesting and vital college of higher education. We've put many things to its benefit and of today and of the modern opportunities which be

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

J. WENCE ELECTED TO HEAD ASSEMBLY

Prove to be Closest in Years

T. J. Wence was elected to the Presidency of the Student Assembly in what was probably one of the closest elections in the history of the Assembly. The election was notable in so much as the election of the president with 30 students running over opposed, Carroll Frewer and Bill Marston by a very slight majority. The election was held later on April 21. The election was held at the College. The College was the end of the race and of the presidential race.

WHY YES, PANGO

It is difficult to think clearly when one is deep in the reactions of aHang Over. I am afraid I am not very lucid today, and I feel the effects of too much beer. I am not feeling very well, so I will not go to bed, but I will try to write a little bit.

I have just had a letter from my friend, Mr. Jones, who is a famous writer. He has just published a new book, and I am very interested in it. I am sure it will be a great success.

I am also very busy with my work. I have a lot of things to do, and I am not sure I will be able to complete all my tasks. I am feeling a little bit anxious, but I am trying to stay calm.

I hope you are doing well. Please write me soon.

Yours sincerely,

Theodore William R

The Johns must have really outclassed the team of G&C on Tuesday. Those trophies are directly to their credit. Bob has done his stuff, but that victory will be largely his, for he must have been largely responsible for the outcome of the game. The Johns were in a position to take any credit away from Bob, certainly it was his that this running would do the job.

Last week end Kenyon (that small school where they don’t get in for any scholarship) ran against Michigan Tech. There the Johns got up in another able and close game. It’s baseball. There must be several players out in that making it their goal—many of them having had the experience of baseball.
