why yes, pango!

The room was dark, and from the darkness came the voice of Pungi.

Was in this nation build upon the people, for the people the beasts have to possess the crucial thrown down on their Master.

You must give us more. There are only great men and women in this nation, and we ask that for which they offer no return.

Who is this nation.

Did the creators of this nation stand on the shores of the Americas and cry out? 'This man is not enough. Give us security; Give us higher wage; Give us more work.'

Thus, they would have perished; just as we will perish, for we, the people of this nation, will perish. Our liberty, our independence will perish, and this nation shall be no more.

Give us.

Are there no longer men in this nation? Men who say I will create, I will produce, I am happy. I am strong. Men who can do something for our nation. Men who can do something for you. You. You must produce much to receive little. Everything else is illness and greed. Follow me for I know the path. You want prosperity. You want peace. You want happiness. Follow me.

Then follow me for I know the path. It is a hard path. It will make you sweat. It will tear the will. It will defeat the lazy and the dishonest. But it is the only true path to peace and plenty. It is the path this nation went along when it was strong. It is the path it must follow if it will be strong again. The few are too busy to care for the many, and the many are too busy to care for themselves. We are a modern Thesee. We are weak for the greatest of all the gods has been placed against us. We shall continue to be weak until we can make the world believe that the gods have no power over us. We shall continue to be weak until we can make the world believe that we endure such a sickness of the spirit? Are we so de down to the point that we can't do a simple thing like produce a susceptible?

Is there now such man, who is this nation?

MacLeish Gives First Hand Report Of The National Youth Congress

Alludes To Convention's Criticism of Roosevelt; Mentions 'Liquor' Solution

By Hugh MacLeish

The Youth was the United States government for the National Youth Congress went for their one purpose. Namely, to en duct the national youth of the United States, and to to try to alleviate some of these unfortu nate conditions if possible. It was the wish of the Youth wanted was for a permanent National Youth Congress to represent the will to produce in the United States, and to to try to alleviate some of these unfortunate conditions if possible. But the Youth wanted was for a permanent National Youth Congress to represent the will to produce in the United States, and to to try to alleviate some of these unfortunate conditions if possible.

The Youth did not go quite as expected. The Youth did not go quite as expected. Everything else is illness and greed. Follow me for I know the path. You want prosperity. You want peace. You want happiness. Follow me.

McNeil Opens Campaign For National Indoor Tennis Championship In New York

Has Disposed of Hirsch Field and Pardoe; Ellis Cooke and Sheila's Eliminated

On Saturday, Don McNeil opened his campaign for the National Indoor Tennis Championship at New York City's Waldorf Astoria Hotel, clinching up with the other seeded players. Don, two years ago, was the first little trouble-dish. Don McNeil is the big man in tennis. It was his first formal appearance this season, but Don pulled the weight of a year's training into the match, and put on a display that few men could match.

Mermen Drown Case Prepare For State Meet

Griffin, Tanner Break Pool Records Again

Using the meet as nothing more than a method of allowing him to show off pool records his own, the Mermen's captain, P. G. Griffin, and his teammate, A. J. Tanner, added to the long list of records already set.

Otterbein Whips Lords; More-Than-Double Scored

Lords Sell 17 Minutes Scoreless In Second Half

Otterbein's athletic class continued its defense of 1:20-20-20 through a crushing 54-20 defeat at the hands of the Lords. The freshmen's floor last Tuesday night, the Valve Boys' floor was opened, and the second half, a 54-20 victory, a good goal for eighteen minutes of the game. Taking the lead at the very outset, the Valve Boys finally "peeled the floor" with theLords on their right hands record.
