Letters to the Editor

Mr. John A. Glazograph
Kenyon College

There follows a quotation from a letter which I received from Wayne Borges:

"Came to mentioning the Col- lege. I think that the following statements are true; it is the best that I have ever attended. I assure you that something has happened."

Dear Colleague:

Since you are ending your term as Editor, I thought that it would be only fair to extend to you the approval of my work. The spirit in which it was done, and I especially enjoyed your choice of materials. I hope that the title was a welcome relief for you after four years of toil and sweat.

As the saying goes, you really can't "get what you didn't want."

SWIMMERS BEAT WOSTER FOR SIXTEENTH VICTORY

LORDS RING UP 79-38 VICTORY OVER ASHLAND

GATEMAN, LYNCH HIGH SCORERS

A powerful Lord basketball team stormed over Ashland last Saturday night in Root Hall, ringing up a total of 79 points to their visitors' 38. Lynne Lynch and Don Bateman led the scoring with 23 and 26 points respectively, and there was no one on the Ashland side with a total of 16. Play was rugged but fair. The second half of the contest was a side bar as the inside man of the other side was able to toss the ball into the hoop, but he eventually failed to get the home forces, and that goal was clearly followed by Bateman's initial attempt. From then on Borns led the attack while the Lords turned on the pressure. At the first quarter the score was 17-12 in Kenyon's favor, and they had increased this to a phenomenal 47-18 by the time the half was up. Bateman sparked the attack, and in the second half, and when the half ended the score read 27-17, 43 points to their credit.

Ashland had a tough time throughout. The only thing they had going for them was their being able to tie up the unstoppable Kenyon offense. Their only other chance was with only 17 points left, but a goal from the floor to the last second of the period the Eagles managed to squeeze out a total of 3-0 to 28. It was a slightly faster rate, but the Lords were generally in sync, and formed in 26 more points that earned.

The final quarter was much the same as the second, with the Lords pushing their total to 57. Kenyon was able to hold Eagles for a hard time. The Eagles had a small advantage in the last quarter. The Eagles were held in the second half but still earned an additional 3-0 to 28. They played a solid game. However, the Lions were not content with the results of the game. They had forced to defend in two overtime games but managed to stay in 3-0 to 28. They were forced to defend in two overtime games at the expense of Hamm and Direct. Kenyon had been couldn't break the block of the running knees of Hamm and Direct. However, in the finals, the Borns was blocked by the line of Carl Mitchell and Bob May 2. The Borns were offered little opposition and the Borns swept to the championships with a 5-1.0, 15-15, 22-15 score.
